News in Brief

British Fire Their Second Atomic Test

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The British exploded an atomic weapon at ground level today at the Maralinga Proving Ground in South Australia. It was the second explosion in Britain's fourth series of test blasts.

"The firing went off satisfactorily," Australian Supply Minister Howard Beale announced. "The cloud behavior was as forecast and meets the requirements of the Australian Safety Committee."

Earlier reports said the ground level explosion was intended to test the effect of shock waves on underground shelters and water, sewage and gas pipes.

The first explosion of the current series, from a tower on Sept. 27, wrecked everything within a two-mile radius and rattled windows 200 miles away.

Two more firings are planned.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli officials said the crowded Haifa-Jerusalem passenger train was attacked Wednesday night by rifle and machinegun fire from across the Jordan border. The engineer was the only casualty.

The wounded man, hit in the leg by a ricocheting bullet, put on full speed and piloted the train another six miles until it reached Lydda.

The incident occurred in the Israeli coastal plain, near Eyal settlement about 35 miles south of Haifa.

ALGIERS (AP)—Algerian rebels killed 23 French soldiers—all of them 21-year-old draftees—in a fierce battle that raged for several hours Wednesday night south of Oran.

The French announcement of the action made no mention of rebel losses.

The soldiers were part of reinforcements hurriedly dispatched to the area of Aflou where Wednesday morning nine others French soldiers were killed in a rebel ambush.

The young troops had been called into uniform only a few months ago.

SEOUL (AP) — Adm. Felix B. Stump, U. S. commander in the Pacific, said today American troops manning positions in Korea are ready for action and "I think we can lick the Communists anywhere in the world."

"We are determined not to be pushed around anywhere," the admiral told newsmen during a tour of frontline positions.

10 Are Killed In Indiana Headon Crash

MUNCIE, Ind. (AP)—An automobile carrying nine Muncie residents (eight of them members of one family) smashed headon into a Keystone, Ind., man's car Wednesday night, crushing the life from all 10 occupants.

It was believed to be the worst auto accident in Indiana history.

The victims were identified as Fred D. Beal, 32; his sister, Loretta Beal; their mother, Mrs. Marie Clark, 60; Beal's wife, Lillian, 30; their daughters, Inez, 8, Chestina, 6, Vickie Lynn, 5, and Claudia, 4; Jesse W. Price, 37, all of Muncie, and Thomas B. Burns, 36, Keystone.

Beal was employed by a Muncie steel mill.

The crash occurred six miles west of Muncie on Ind. 67. Coroner Eugene Eissman said state police told him Beal's car, traveling southwest at high speed, hit Burns car and pushed it 88 feet back down the road.

One of the women lived long enough to be brought to Ball Memorial Hospital, where she died a few minutes after being admitted. The others died in the tangled wreckage.

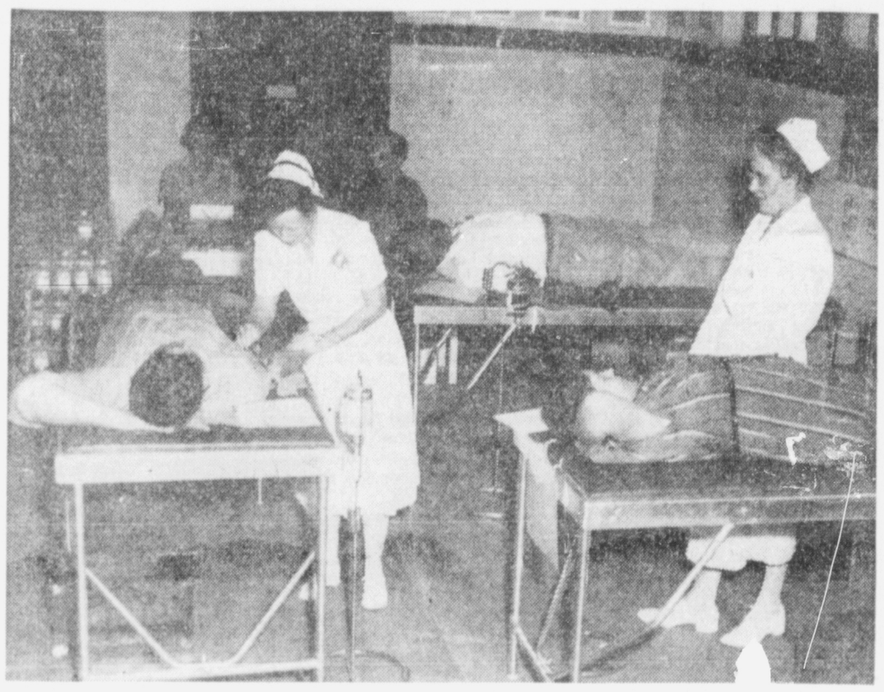
Blood Donors Give 132 Pints



BLOOD DONORS relaxed while they gave blood in the basement of the First Christian Church here Wednesday afternoon. A Registered Nurse, Mrs. Kay Gillen, prepares Max Havens of Washington C. H. R. F. D. for his first donation at left. In the background Harold C. Winfield, of Bloomingburg, completes his third donation. Mrs. Dorothy Frederick, at right, staff nurse from Columbus, stands by after preparing Mrs. Betty Hoppes of Greenfield for her third donation.

Fayette Countians gave 132 pints of blood to the Red Cross blood bank when the mobile unit visited Washington C. H. Wednesday.

This was 41 pints short of the increased quota of 173 pints, but only 18 short of the quota of 150 that has been assigned to the county for more than two years.

Several members of the volunteer staff aides admitted they were disappointed that the 173 quota was not met, but said they thought he response was "pretty good" under the conditions.

Mrs. Carolin Shaper, chairman of the county blood program, said that although the quota was not reached, she was pleased and pointed out that there were 30 who gave blood for the first time, that there was an almost equal number of men and women, that the donors came from all over the county and that there was a more even distribution of donors from the rural areas, the city and industry. She commented that in the past "industry has been carrying much of the load."

The Home Demonstration clubs of the county sponsored this visit of the bloodmobile. In that role, club members recruited the donors.

THE MOBILE UNIT was set up in the First Christian Church from 10 a. m. until 4 p. m. Blood donated here was taken to the Red Cross blood bank in Columbus to be drawn out as needed by the community it came from. Incidentally, Fayette Countians have been using more blood than they have been giving, records at Memorial Hospital show.

There were 156 volunteers, but 24 were rejected for various reasons. Physicians are at the bloodmobile to give each prospective donor a physical examination before he is permitted to give blood.

Of the 132 who gave blood, 128 had appointments and 28 were classed as "walk-ins," that is, came in without appointments. Forty-one of them said they wanted to give blood for friends or relatives who have received it or expect to receive it.

One of the donors was a service man, James W. Bobst, of the Air Force.

TWO DONORS, George Bainter and Robert W. Harper, joined the two-gallon club and eight, James Puckett, Audrey Kessler, Thomas E. McFadden, Lorain Morter, Herbert Clickner, Roy Coe, Jr., James H. Evans and Florence Cook, became members of the gallon club.

There were few changes in the staff aides. Physicians who made the examinations were Dr. Robert Woodmansee, Dr. Hugh Payton, Dr. Joseph Herbert, Dr. Philip Binzel, Mr. Marvin Roszmann and Dr. Byers Shaw.

Community Chest To Help Keep Blood Bank Operating

One of the most important single activities in Fayette County is the Red Cross blood bank which has provided more than 700 pints of life-saving blood for patients at Memorial Hospital in the first eight months of 1956.

The operation of the blood bank program takes one third of the total Red Cross budget in this county. The local Red Cross chapter is included in the Community Chest fund drive this year for the first time in Chest history here.

Largely, this has been brought about by the insistence of both contributors and workers alike. Since these two major fund raising organizations have united into one big campaign, the Red Cross will not conduct its usual fund drive in the spring.

In addition to the operation of the blood bank, there are many other worthwhile activities carried on by the Red Cross at the local level. There have been 89 cases of special aid to servicemen and the families from January until August, according to information furnished by Mrs. Leonard Korn, chapter secretary.

This aid has included 216 telegrams or long distance calls in emergency cases, where perhaps it has been necessary to bring a soldier home from overseas because of a death in his family.

The information provided by local Red Cross chapters is the only source recognized by military authorities in such cases.

* * *

FIRST AID and water safety also are important items in the local Red Cross activities. A total of 225 persons have received swimming instructions from Mrs. Robert Green at the Washington Park pool, and 45 have enrolled since January for first aid instruction from James Yates. Almost 700 Fayette County persons have been trained in first aid since World War II.

A new volunteer service organization— the Gray Ladies — is now being set up by the local Red Cross chapter under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mike Harrison.

These ladies will serve exclusively in the Veterans Hospital at Chillicothe helping in the important work of rehabilitation among the patients there.

And, of course, the work of the Red Cross nationally in time of disaster or flood relief is well known. A large portion of the funds budgeted by the local chapter is forwarded for use in areas of need.

Fayette County 72nd in U. S. In 'Sold Alive' Hog Category

Fayette County is 72nd among the nation's counties in the category of "hogs and pigs sold alive" according to a Census Bureau report on its 1954 farm survey.

In the same classification, Clinton County placed 45th in the nation and Greene County 86th.

What the bureau has done is to list the top 100 counties in the nation—in terms of numbers or production—for more than 50 different farm categories.

For example, Wayne County is found on four of these lists: It ranks 98th in milk cows (27,059), 87th in whole milk sold (185,599,000 pounds), 91st in chicken eggs sold (4,355,191) and 97th in chickens on farms (451,828).

Darke made three lists: Chickens—88th, chicken eggs sold—83rd, and turkeys raised—41st. Holmes was 54th in horses and mules with 4,798.

Of the other Ohio counties, the most frequently mentioned was Ottawa, which placed in five classes. It was 90th in tomatoes, 39th in peaches, 91st in plums and prunes, 45th in grapes and 53rd in pears.

Closest to the top in a single class was Cuyahoga County (Greater Cleveland). Cuyahoga ranked fifth in the country in nurseries and greenhouse cash business.

This material, incidentally, is used by the Agriculture Department for making crop estimates, by businessmen sizing up sales territories, and some farmers to determine what to plant.

Here are some other Ohio counties that placed among the national leaders:

Turkeys raised — Fulton (48th) and Knox (68th).

Cherries—Sandusky (52nd), Erie (80th), and Lake (89th).

Grapes—Ashtabula (28th), Lake (34th), Lorain (40th), Erie (50th), Cuyahoga (52nd), Geauga (60th), Franklin (90th), and Montgomery (100th).

Tomatoes—Fulton (47th), Lucas (52nd), Henry (63rd), Wood (84th), Mercer (96th).

Apples—Columbiana (61st) and Ashtabula (78th).

Pears — Geauga (56th), Lake 95th), Summit (100th).

Plums and prunes — Summit (88th), and Lake (98th).

Nurseries and greenhouses — Summit (14th), Hamilton (24th), Lucas (29th), Lorain (49th), Wood (94th) and Clark (96th).

Soybeans — Wood (43rd), Paulding (54th), Van Wert (63rd), Henry (82nd), and Putnam (90th).

Sugar beets—Putnam (95th).

Sweet corn — Pickaway (80th) and Erie (82nd).

Cabbages harvested for sale—Sandusky (64th), Erie (79th), and Lorain (94th).

Wildcat Strike Hits Atom Plant

WAVERLY (AP)—A strike labeled as unauthorized kept an undetermined number of people away from their work at the atomic energy plant near here today.

Involved are some members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Local 10689.

Spokesmen for both the union and management said they did not know how many men are on strike. The union spokesman said the union is trying to get the men back to work.

It was not known what caused the walkout which began Wednesday afternoon. This morning pickets were at each of the three main gates leading to the plant.

Perry Bennett, 28, of Athens, was captured in a home near New Marshfield, 12 miles west of here.

Building Falls, 10 Men Lost

Jackson, Mich., Halts Search for Missing

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Heart-sick volunteers broke off rescue operations early today in the shattered ruins of a collapsed building, leaving at least six men presumed dead in wreckage that already has yielded four bodies.

The task of uncovering tangled tons of concrete and steel which buried the victims was slated to be resumed after tottering walls that threaten to fall on rescuers were knocked down.

The halt in the frantic digging that had continued throughout the night cancelled the last faint hope that some of the trapped workmen would be found alive.

Fifteen others were injured Wednesday when the half completed office building of the Consumers Power Co., collapsed

The four-story poured - concrete structure had been designed to withstand the shock of an A-bomb blast.

About 40 electricians, carpenters and construction men were working on the floor that gave way. Several were able to leap to sections that remained standing, but more than a score was trapped.

* * *

A TENSE MOMENT came late Wednesday night when noisy generators and rescue machinery were shut off for 10 minutes while a dozen workers went far down into the debris to listen for moans or a sound that would indicate life.

But all was silent.

During the silence, the Rev. Francis Desmond, a local Roman Catholic priest, led the huge crowd of onlookers in the Lord's Prayer.

Rain Causes Postponement Of Series

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick today ordered the postponement of today's second game of the World Series between Brooklyn and the Yankees because of a light rain and "menacing weather."

The decision came after a conference of Frick with Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Walter Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers and the umpires.

The huddle was held in the Brooklyn dugout at Ebbets Field while a light sprinkle fell on the diamond, which was covered by a tarpaulin.

"These conditions are all right for playing," the Commissioner said, "but the forecast for general, and possibly heavier rains, this afternoon have forced us to call off the game."

The second game will be played Friday at Ebbets Field with the forecast for fair weather

It was the first postponement of a World Series game in five years. A Sunday game at the Polo Grounds in 1951 between the Yankees and New York Giants was postponed then because of rain.

Frick said:

"If a World Series game is started, the rules of baseball apply and five innings would constitute a game, four and a half innings if the home team is ahead."

Pennsylvania Seen As Key to Voting

Editor's Note: This is another in a series of articles by Associated Press political reporters surveying sentiment in key states.

By RELMAN MORIN

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP) — For a special set of reasons, Pennsylvania is a state to watch as the race for the presidency picks up speed.

It has 32 electoral votes — a quota equalled by California and exceeded only by New York's 45.

Since it is President Eisenhower's adopted state, both parties attach special prestige values to carrying it. Although Eisenhower appears to be leading Adlai Stevenson, most observers say it is still anybody's race.

Two years ago, for the second time since the Civil War, Democrats elected a governor, George M. Leader, and they have whittled down the GOP registration margin.

In 1952, Eisenhower carried Pennsylvania by 269,000 votes, or 53 per cent of the total of about 4,580,000.

It was the small towns and farming communities, that gave Pennsylvania to Eisenhower. Stevenson carried the big cities.

You discover today that many people in different economic categories, and without regard to party affiliation, like Ike.

* * *

A FEW MILES outside the city of Clearfield is a brick plant. You question 17 men there, foremen, pipefitters, skilled firemen, bricklayers.

Of 14 who voted for Eisenhower four years ago, 12 said they will again.

One of the other two is undecided. The other, Burton Knepp, said he was switching to Stevenson. "I thought it was time for a change," he said, "but I don't like the change we got."

Three are still for Stevenson. They said they have always voted Democratic.

Few people seemed concerned about Eisenhower's heart attack or operation. Typical comments: "He's in better shape than Stevenson, I figure" . . . "If he thinks he can run, that's good enough."

But Morris Silverblatt, an attorney, reported that "small businessmen are complaining. I don't think things are bad, but expenses are going up and profits are cut."

He thinks the Democrats will carry the county, but that Eisenhower will carry the state.

What about the farmers?

Here you run into some contradictions. Some said their income this year is below last year, another said it was up, another said "it's about the same."

None, however, said he was switching parties as a result. A parttime farmer, John Shifter, said his income is up but that he is a registered Democrat "and I'm voting Democratic."

In the mining communities, where unemployment is greatest, the expressions were almost unanimously in favor of Stevenson and the whole Democratic ticket.

U. N. Aide Seeks Accord on Suez

Hammarskjold Hoping To Avoid Council Fight

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is reported using his full influence to avert a showdown Security Council fight which might shut the door to further U. N. peace efforts in the Suez dispute.

Informed quarters said this was the main theme in the series of private talks Hammarskjold is having with high ranking diplomats assembling for the Suez debate beginning in the Security Council Thursday.

The secretary general was understood to have found substantial support, but Britain and France said they were determined to push their demands for a U. N. endorsement of the plan for international control of the canal approved by the London conference in Mid-August.

Hammarskjold and his supporters feared that the possibility of future U. N. helpfulness might be eliminated if this plan were rejected either by a Soviet veto or through failure to get the necessary 7 votes in the 11-nation council.

* * *

HAMMARSKJOLD is trying to enlist support for formation of some kind of negotiating committee to keep the discussions alive without placing the U. N. behind either side in the dispute. The form of the negotiating group and the sponsorship still were under discussion.

One of those backing this idea is Iranian Delegate Djalal Abdoh. Diplomatic observers said the United States is interested in this plan, but the U. S. delegation so far has not come out for it publicly.

Nixon Books Tour of Ohio On Oct. 15

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio Republican headquarters Wednesday announced that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his wife, Patricia, will make a one-day flying tour of central-western, northern and northeastern Ohio Monday, Oct. 15.

State GOP Chairman Ray C. Bliss said the program is still in the tentative stage.

Nixon will arrive in Dayton late Sunday. His first public appearance will be at a public breakfast Monday at 8:15 a.m. in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel.

From Dayton, the vice president will travel by plane to Toledo, arriving at about 11:15 a.m. At noon Nixon will give a public address at a site to be determined later. Lucas County GOP Chairman Herman Miller is making the arrangements.

After the Toledo meeting, the Nixon party will attend a nonpolitical meeting at Defiance College in Defiance. From Defiance the group will fly to the Warren-Youngstown Airport, arriving about 6 p.m. Nixon's first appearance in the area will be in Warren where he will speak at 7:30 p.m. in Packard Music Hall. The Nixon party then will motor to Youngstown for a public meeting scheduled to start at 8:45 p.m.

Vacation Pay Brings Snag In Agreement

Lewis Says Signing Due Today; Miners To Get $2.40 Daily Hike

CINCINNATI (AP) — A squabble between John L. Lewis and coal mine owners over vacation pay allowances for miners appeared near settlement today to permit signing a new one-year coal contract.

The agreement to give nearly 20,000 soft coal miners a $2.40 daily boost in wages and holiday benefits had been held up over the dispute about holiday pay but Lewis announced the dispute had been settled and the agreement would be signed late today.

Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers union, told the UMW's 3,000 convention delegates here that Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn. (BCOA) had forecast "the matter could be ironed out."

Fox came here Wednesday to talk with Lewis but left for Pittsburgh without signing their previously initial tentative agreement. Fox planned to return to Cincinnati today.

* * *

THE UNION insisted on $180 summer vacation pay plus $40 Christmas holiday pay but Fox apparently had understood the annual total was to be only $180.

The BCOA represents major northern and "captive" mines, the latter owned by steel companies or utilities, and its contract with the UMW usually becomes the labor terms for the industry. The BCOA firms employ about 150,000 of the industry's 200,000 workers.

Lewis told his 3,000 convention delegates assembled in Cincinnati that the UMW he heads had initialed a contract agreement calling for a $2.40 daily boost in wages and other benefits.

Delegates cheered and eventually ratified the deal after some debate. But a scheduled signing of the new wage pact a few hours later failed to come off.

It developed that Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators' Assn. who had penetrated a close fog over Cincinnati in a private plane to come here to sign a contract, also left through the haze, without putting his signature to the final deal.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Canada has a huge and relatively new uranium deposit that has doubled the country's uranium output despite production problems complicated by ice and freezing temperatures.

Nixon Slated To Level Heavy Fire Against Adlai in TV Speech Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice-President Nixon reports to the nation tonight on his 32-state campaign tour that ended Wednesday night in Philadelphia with a blast at what he called Adlai Stevenson's "catastrophic nonsense."

The GOP's campaign workhorse will make his first network television appearance (NBC—7:30 p. m. EST) of the 1956 campaign in what the Republican National Committee billed as "a first."

Political writers in eight cities visited by Nixon on his airborne campaign tour that traveled 15,000 miles in 16 days will quiz him on his findings in an unrehearsed program.

Nixon will rest here for five days and confer with party officials before leaving next Tuesday on another swing that will take him to 14 states in 10 days.

He arrived at National Airport here late Wednesday night after a wind-up foreign policy speech in Philadelphia, last stop on the trip that took him up and down the Pacific Coast, into the Northwest, through the farm belt, into the South and the Southwest and into New England.

He chose Philadelphia to answer Stevenson's proposal in New Jersey on Tuesday that President Eisenhower take the lead in seeking a ban on hydrogen bomb tests.

That, Nixon said in the sharpest speech he made during the entire trip, "is one of the most extraordinary, appalling statements in the history of American political campaigning" and raises "a grave doubt as to whether he (Stevenson) has the judgment, the responsibility and the temperament to lead the United States and the Free World in this critical period."

Stevenson's campaign statement both on foreign and domestic subjects. Nixon charged, are "terribly damaging to America's interests abroad" and are providing "grist for the propaganda mills" of those seeking to woo the uncommitted peoples of the world to the cause of Communism.

Last night, Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey asserted that Stevenson has tried to "destroy the character of the President of The United States" and the character of his brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, by a "witch's brew."

Dewey also accuses the Democratic presidential nominee of issuing a "miserable collection of untruths" in charging that the Eisenhower administration appeased the Peron regime in Argentina.

The former governor told his listeners that he hoped they were "as outraged as I am by the disgraceful attacks that have been made on the President" by Stevenson.

Dewey defended President Eisenhower against a number of accusations made by Stevenson.

Dewey called Stevenson "ill-informed, impulsive" and "mediocre" and "not even in the same league with President Eisenhower."

Stevenson, said Dewey, would "rather be President than right" and is so "frantic for office that he will say anything to get there."

Dewey's principal target was Stevenson's recent statement that the Eisenhower administration "chose to appease" Juan Peron, the former Argentine dictator, while Peron "connived against us and friendly Democratic governments in Central America."

Dr. Eisenhower, now the president of Johns Hopkins University, went to Latin America in 1953 as the President's personal emissary to promote better feeling among American states.

Community Chest To Help Keep Blood Bank Operating

One of the most important single activities in Fayette County is the Red Cross blood bank which has provided more than 700 pints of life-saving blood for patients at Memorial Hospital in the first eight months of 1956.

The operation of the blood bank program takes one third of the total Red Cross budget in this county. The local Red Cross chapter is included in the Community Chest fund drive this year for the first time in Chest history here.

Largely, this has been brought about by the insistence of both contributors and workers alike. Since these two major fund raising organizations have united into one big campaign, the Red Cross will not conduct its usual fund drive in the spring.

In addition to the operation of the blood bank, there are many other worthwhile activities carried on by the Red Cross at the local level. There have been 89 cases of special aid to servicemen and the families from January until August, according to information furnished by Mrs. Leonard Korn, chapter secretary.

This aid has included 216 telegrams or long distance calls in emergency cases, where perhaps it has been necessary to bring a soldier home from overseas because of a death in his family.

The information provided by local Red Cross chapters is the only source recognized by military authorities in such cases.

* * *

FIRST AID and water safety also are important items in the local Red Cross activities. A total of 225 persons have received swimming instructions from Mrs. Robert Green at the Washington Park pool, and 45 have enrolled since January for first aid instruction from James Yates. Almost 700 Fayette County persons have been trained in first aid since World War II.

A new volunteer service organization— the Gray Ladies — is now being set up by the local Red Cross chapter under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mike Harrison.

These ladies will serve exclusively in the Veterans Hospital at Chillicothe helping in the important work of rehabilitation among the patients there.

And, of course, the work of the Red Cross nationally in time of disaster or flood relief is well known. A large portion of the funds budgeted by the local chapter is forwarded for use in areas of need.

Fayette County 72nd in U. S. In 'Sold Alive' Hog Category

Fayette County is 72nd among the nation's counties in the category of "hogs and pigs sold alive" according to a Census Bureau report on its 1954 farm survey.

In the same classification, Clinton County placed 45th in the nation and Greene County 86th.

What the bureau has done is to list the top 100 counties in the nation—in terms of numbers or production—for more than 50 different farm categories.

For example, Wayne County is found on four of these lists: It ranks 98th in milk cows (27,059), 87th in whole milk sold (185,599,000 pounds), 91st in chicken eggs sold (4,355,191) and 97th in chickens on farms (451,828).

Darke made three lists: Chickens—88th, chicken eggs sold—83rd, and turkeys raised—41st. Holmes was 54th in horses and mules with 4,798.

Of the other Ohio counties, the most frequently mentioned was Ottawa, which placed in five classes. It was 90th in tomatoes, 39th in peaches, 91st in plums and prunes, 45th in grapes and 53rd in pears.

Closest to the top in a single class was Cuyahoga County (Greater Cleveland). Cuyahoga ranked fifth in the country in nurseries and greenhouse cash business.

This material, incidentally, is used by the Agriculture Department for making crop estimates, by businessmen sizing up sales territories, and some farmers to determine what to plant.

Here are some other Ohio counties that placed among the national leaders:

Turkeys raised — Fulton (48th) and Knox (68th).

Cherries—Sandusky (52nd), Erie (80th), and Lake (89th).

Grapes—Ashtabula (28th), Lake (34th), Lorain (40th), Erie (50th), Cuyahoga (52nd), Geauga (60th), Franklin (90th), and Montgomery (100th).

Tomatoes—Fulton (47th), Lucas (52nd), Henry (63rd), Wood (84th), Mercer (96th).

Apples—Columbiana (61st) and Ashtabula (78th).

Pears — Geauga (56th), Lake 95th), Summit (100th).

Plums and prunes — Summit (88th), and Lake (98th).

Nurseries and greenhouses — Summit (14th), Hamilton (24th), Lucas (29th), Lorain (49th), Wood (94th) and Clark (96th).

Soybeans — Wood (43rd), Paulding (54th), Van Wert (63rd), Henry (82nd), and Putnam (90th).

Sugar beets—Putnam (95th).

Sweet corn — Pickaway (80th) and Erie (82nd).

Cabbages harvested for sale—Sandusky (64th), Erie (79th), and Lorain (94th).

Wildcat Strike Hits Atom Plant

WAVERLY (AP)—A strike labeled as unauthorized kept an undetermined number of people away from their work at the atomic energy plant near here today.

Involved are some members of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Local 10689.

Spokesmen for both the union and management said they did not know how many men are on strike. The union spokesman said the union is trying to get the men back to work.

It was not known what caused the walkout which began Wednesday afternoon. This morning pickets were at each of the three main gates leading to the plant.

Athens Hospital Escapee Grabbed

ATHENS (AP) — A deputy sheriff and a state wildlife worker shortly before Wednesday midnight flushed from under a bed a fugitive who had been at large since he slugged an attendant and escaped from Athens State Hospital Aug. 22.

Perry Bennett, 28, of Athens, was captured in a home near New Marshfield, 12 miles west of here.

Building Falls, 10 Men Lost

Jackson, Mich., Halts Search for Missing

JACKSON, Mich. (AP)—Heart-sick volunteers broke off rescue operations early today in the shattered ruins of a collapsed building, leaving at least six men presumed dead in wreckage that already has yielded four bodies.

The task of uncovering tangled tons of concrete and steel which buried the victims was slated to be resumed after tottering walls that threaten to fall on rescuers were knocked down.

The halt in the frantic digging that had continued throughout the night cancelled the last faint hope that some of the trapped workmen would be found alive.

Fifteen others were injured Wednesday when the half completed office building of the Consumers Power Co., collapsed

The four-story poured - concrete structure had been designed to withstand the shock of an A-bomb blast.

About 40 electricians, carpenters and construction men were working on the floor that gave way. Several were able to leap to sections that remained standing, but more than a score was trapped.

* * *

A TENSE MOMENT came late Wednesday night when noisy generators and rescue machinery were shut off for 10 minutes while a dozen workers went far down into the debris to listen for moans or a sound that would indicate life.

But all was silent.

During the silence, the Rev. Francis Desmond, a local Roman Catholic priest, led the huge crowd of onlookers in the Lord's Prayer.

Rain Causes Postponement Of Series

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick today ordered the postponement of today's second game of the World Series between Brooklyn and the Yankees because of a light rain and "menacing weather."

The decision came after a conference of Frick with Manager Casey Stengel of the Yankees and Walter Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers and the umpires.

The huddle was held in the Brooklyn dugout at Ebbets Field while a light sprinkle fell on the diamond, which was covered by a tarpaulin.

"These conditions are all right for playing," the Commissioner said, "but the forecast for general, and possibly heavier rains, this afternoon have forced us to call off the game."

The second game will be played Friday at Ebbets Field with the forecast for fair weather.

It was the first postponement of a World Series game in five years. A Sunday game at the Polo Grounds in 1951 between the Yankees and New York Giants was postponed then because of rain.

Frick said:

"If a World Series game is started, the rules of baseball apply and five innings would constitute a game, four and a half innings if the home team is ahead."

Pennsylvania Seen As Key to Voting

Editor's Note: This is another in a series of articles by Associated Press political reporters surveying sentiment in key states.

By RELMAN MORIN

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP) — For a special set of reasons, Pennsylvania is a state to watch as the race for the presidency picks up speed.

It has 32 electoral votes — a quota equalled by California and exceeded only by New York's 45.

Since it is President Eisenhower's adopted state, both parties attach special prestige values to carrying it. Although Eisenhower appears to be leading Adlai Stevenson, most observers say it is still anybody's race.

Two years ago, for the second time since the Civil War, Democrats elected a governor, George M. Leader, and they have whittled down the GOP registration margin.

In 1952, Eisenhower carried Pennsylvania by 269,000 votes, or 53 per cent of the total of about 4,580,000.

It was the small towns and farming communities, that gave Pennsylvania to Eisenhower. Stevenson carried the big cities.

You discover today that many people in different economic categories, and without regard to party affiliation, like Ike.

* * *

A FEW MILES outside the city of Clearfield is a brick plant. You question 17 men there, foremen, pipefitters, skilled firemen, bricklayers.

Of 14 who voted for Eisenhower four years ago, 12 said they will again.

One of the other two is undecided. The other, Burton Knepp, said he was switching to Stevenson. "I thought it was time for a change," he said, "but I don't like the change we got."

Three are still for Stevenson. They said they have always voted Democratic.

Few people seemed concerned about Eisenhower's heart attack or operation. Typical comments: "He's in better shape than Stevenson, I figure" . . . "If he thinks he can run, that's good enough."

But Morris Silverblatt, an attorney, reported that "small-businessmen are complaining. I don't think things are bad, but expenses are going up and profits are cut."

He thinks the Democrats will carry the county, but that Eisenhower will carry the state.

What about the farmers?

Here you run into some contradictions. Some said their income this year is below last year, another said it was up, another said "it's about the same."

None, however, said he was switching parties as a result. A parttime farmer, John Shifter, said his income is up but that he is a registered Democrat "and I'm voting Democratic."

In the mining communities, where unemployment is greatest, the expressions were almost unanimously in favor of Stevenson and the whole Democratic ticket.

U. N. Aide Seeks Accord on Suez

Hammarskjold Hoping To Avoid Council Fight

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold is reported using his full influence to avert a showdown Security Council fight which might shut the door to further U. N. peace efforts in the Suez dispute.

Informed quarters said this was the main theme in the series of private talks Hammarskjold is having with high ranking diplomats assembling for the Suez debate beginning in the Security Council Thursday.

The secretary general was understood to have found substantial support, but Britain and France said they were determined to push their demands for a U. N. endorsement of the plan for international control of the canal approved by the London conference in Mid-August.

Hammarskjold and his supporters feared that the possibility of future U. N. helpfulness might be eliminated if this plan were rejected either by a Soviet veto or through failure to get the necessary 7 votes in the 11-nation council.

* * *

HAMMARSKJOLD is trying to enlist support for formation of some kind of negotiating committee to keep the discussions alive without placing the U. N. behind either side in the dispute. The form of the negotiating group and the sponsorship still were under discussion.

One of those backing this idea is Iranian Delegate Djalal Abdoh. Diplomatic observers said the United States is interested in this plan, but the U. S. delegation so far has not come out for it publicly.

Nixon Books Tour of Ohio On Oct. 15

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio Republican headquarters Wednesday announced that Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his wife, Patricia, will make a one-day flying tour of central-western, northern and northeastern Ohio Monday, Oct. 15.

State GOP Chairman Ray C. Bliss said the program is still in the tentative stage.

Nixon will arrive in Dayton late Sunday. His first public appearance will be at a public breakfast Monday at 8:15 a.m. in the ballroom of the Biltmore Hotel.

From Dayton, the vice president will travel by plane to Toledo, arriving at about 11:15 a.m. At noon Nixon will give a public address at a site to be determined later. Lucas County GOP Chairman Herman Miller is making the arrangements.

After the Toledo meeting, the Nixon party will attend a nonpolitical meeting at Defiance College in Defiance. From Defiance the group will fly to the Warren-Youngstown Airport, arriving about 6 p.m. Nixon's first appearance in the area will be in Warren where he will speak at 7:30 p.m. in Packard Music Hall. The Nixon party then will motor to Youngstown for a public meeting scheduled to start at 8:45 p.m.

Vacation Pay Brings Snag In Agreement

Lewis Says Signing Due Today; Miners To Get $2.40 Daily Hike

CINCINNATI (AP) — A squabble between John L. Lewis and coal mine owners over vacation pay allowances for miners appeared near settlement today to permit signing a new one-year coal contract.

The agreement to give nearly 20,000 soft coal miners a $2.40 daily boost in wages and holiday benefits had been held up over the dispute about holiday pay but Lewis announced the dispute had been settled and the agreement would be signed late today.

Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers union, told the UMW's 3,000 convention delegates here that Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn. (BCOA) had forecast "the matter could be ironed out."

Fox came here Wednesday to talk with Lewis but left for Pittsburgh without signing their previously initial tentative agreement. Fox planned to return to Cincinnati today.

* * *

THE UNION insisted on $180 summer vacation pay plus $40 Christmas holiday pay but Fox apparently had understood the annual total was to be only $180.

The BCOA represents major northern and "captive" mines, the latter owned by steel companies or utilities, and its contract with the UMW usually becomes the labor terms for the industry. The BCOA firms employ about 150,000 of the industry's 200,000 workers.

Lewis told his 3,000 convention delegates assembled in Cincinnati that the UMW he heads had initialed a contract agreement calling for a $2.40 daily boost in wages and other benefits.

Delegates cheered and eventually ratified the deal after some debate. But a scheduled signing of the new wage pact a few hours later failed to come off.

It developed that Edward G. Fox, president of the Bituminous Coal Operators' Assn. who had penetrated a close fog over Cincinnati in a private plane to come here to sign a contract, also left through the haze, without putting his signature to the final deal.

Nixon Slated To Level Heavy Fire Against Adlai in TV Speech Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice-President Nixon reports to the nation tonight on his 32-state campaign tour that ended Wednesday night in Philadelphia with a blast at what he called Adlai Stevenson's "catastrophic nonsense."

The GOP's campaign workhorse will make his first network television appearance (NBC—7:30 p. m. EST) of the 1956 campaign in what the Republican National Committee billed as "a first."

Political writers in eight cities visited by Nixon on his airborne campaign tour that traveled 15,000 miles in 16 days will quiz him on his findings in an unrehearsed program.

Nixon will rest here for five days and confer with party officials before leaving next Tuesday on another swing that will take him to 14 states in 10 days.

He arrived at National Airport here late Wednesday night after a wind-up foreign policy speech in Philadelphia, last stop on the trip that took him up and down the Pacific Coast, into the Northwest, through the farm belt, into the South and the Southwest and into New England.

He chose Philadelphia to answer Stevenson's proposal in New Jersey on Tuesday that President Eisenhower take the lead in seeking a ban on hydrogen bomb tests.

That, Nixon said in the sharpest speech he made during the entire trip, "is one of the most extraordinary, appalling statements in the history of American political campaigning" and raises "a grave doubt as to whether he (Stevenson) has the judgment, the responsibility and the temperament to lead the United States and the Free World in this critical period."

Stevenson's campaign statement both on foreign and domestic subjects. Nixon charged, are "terribly damaging to America's interests abroad" and are providing "grist for the propaganda mills" of those seeking to woo the uncommitted peoples of the world to the cause of Communism.

Last night, Former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey asserted that Stevenson has tried to "destroy the character of the President of The United States" and the character of his brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, by a "witch's brew."

Dewey also accuses the Democratic presidential nominee of issuing a "miserable collection of untruths" in charging that the Eisenhower administration appeased the Peron regime in Argentina.

The former governor told his listeners that he hoped they were "as outraged as I am by the disgraceful attacks that have been made on the President" by Stevenson.

Dewey defended President Eisenhower against a number of accusations made by Stevenson.

Dewey called Stevenson "ill-informed, impulsive" and "mediocre" and "not even in the same league with President Eisenhower."

Stevenson, said Dewey, would "rather be President than right" and is so "frantic for office that he will say anything to get there."

Dewey's principal target was Stevenson's recent statement that the Eisenhower administration "chose to appease" Juan Peron, the former Argentine dictator, while Peron "connived against us and friendly Democratic governments in Central America."

Dr. Eisenhower, now the president of Johns Hopkins University, went to Latin America in 1953 as the President's personal emissary to promote better feeling among American states.

Something We Should Consider Thoughtfully

With all the claims and counter claims that are being made in this election campaign, the voters of the nation, for their own benefit, ought to give serious contemplation to what has actually happened under the leadership and efforts of President Eisenhower.

Obviously this would be much more sensible than to be temporarily swept off their feet, or allow ourselves to be carried away by the type of criticism which certain leading political opponents are attempting to use carrying definite misrepresentations and a complete lack of well defined statements as to what they would do along constructive lines.

For example, let's take a look at the federal budget situation. Somebody tried to convince the American people not too many years ago that a nation is different from a family — that nations can go merrily on their way without balancing the budget. This pleasant nonsense never really convinced anybody who really and honestly thought about it.

As of the moment, our surplus for the last fiscal year reached one billion eight hundred million dollars. Our estimates for 1957 are now calculated at seven hundred million dollars more in receipts than we shall spend.

This is in direct keeping with the position adopted by our federal treasury department. No family can continue to live largely beyond its means. It is even worse when a government attempts to do so. The fact to remember concerning the balancing of the budget is the truth that a cut of more than five billion dollars was made in government spending between 1953 and 1957's estimates.

If we can stay on a pay-as-we-go basis, our whole economy will be stronger, sounder and stable.

Now, let's examine the labor status as of now, without a war to keep attention diverted away from our financial condition.

The total labor picture throughout the nation is always difficult to appraise. Mark Twain's classic adage that "Figures don't lie, but liars figure" applies to almost every effort to get a comprehensive view. The country may be diligently at work, with large employment throughout the land but particular groups may still find sporadic hardships. All of which makes the Labor Department report to the President a very important document.

These are the facts. 1. Unemployment insurance coverage has been extended to four million new workers in the past two years. 2. Social Security benefits have been provided for ten million additional men and women. 3. Longshoremen and Harbor Workers have been granted increased benefits. 4. Railroad Retirement benefits have been raised. 5. Our Vocational Rehabilitation program has been improved. 6. Minimum wages have been raised.

All this is federal legislation. Our states, too, have made strides in this field. Forty-five states have increased unemployment insurance benefits or extended the periods for which benefits are payable. Improvements in workmen's compensation have been made in forty-six states. Out of this healthier climate in labor relations, we have five and one - half million more men and women working today than there were three years ago. The average worker makes $13 more per week than he did in 1953. Even with our taxes and relatively high living costs, take-home pay is $8.50 more per week than it was when we changed national administrations four years back. This is the record.

Doesn't all this add up to the idea that we had better continue to "play safe" with Eisenhower?

Engagement Ring for Man?

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Guess what's new in diamond engagement rings.

The answer: Male fingers!

You mean men are actually beginning to wear engagement rings?

"Yes, more every day," said Henry Peterson, the nation's largest diamond ring manufacturer. "But in the case of men we don't call them engagement rings. We call them acceptance rings.

"When a woman becomes engaged, she naturally wants to give her fiance a present. And there is no earthly reason why she shouldn't buy him a diamond ring, so he, too, can have an everlasting proof of her love."

There is also another advantage in this trend for the bachelor. If his girl throws him over for another guy, he can hock the ring she gave him to court a new flame.

Peterson said that while acceptance rings for men are still only a small part of the booming diamond ring industry, it is growing steadily.

"Matched foursomes (a set of diamond engagement and wedding rings for both the husband and wife) are also becoming popular," he remarked, adding: "Particularly in Texas."

The sets go for $200 to $2,500 and (particularly in Texas) up.

Peterson, who is promoting the idea that a diamond ring is a boy's best friend, is a top figure in the glitter field who started from exactly nothing.

"That's what I got when I started to learn the trade at 14—nothing a week," he recalled. "And the depression hit, and times got really bad."

But hard times were nothing new to him. He had gone to work at 12 to help support his mother, a widow with seven children.

Twenty - two years ago he launched his own business with $25 he borrowed from his sister. He pioneered with a device that interlocked the wedding ring with the engagement ring. It helped revolutionize the industry. Today his firm does a multi-million-dollar business annually.

Peterson himself is a millionaire and an unusual one. Most millionaires preach the virtues of hard work. But Peterson points out its disadvantages.

"I am only 48," he said, "but to get where I am I had to put in as much hard work as a man of 85, and sometimes I feel like 85."

Real Issues Are Buried

By George Sokolsky

The 1956 election is less than six weeks away as this is being written. The campaign shows some motion and there have been some speeches. But the whole effort, of both parties, is astonishingly dull.

Maybe the reformers have succeeded in achieving what they like to call a "clean election," that is, one in which there is such a deference to the other side that the whole business is meaningless. There is no genuine discussion, no ardent debate, no intense excitement. It is very dull.

The best effort of the Democrats thus far is to accuse Dr. Milton Eisenhower of favoring Peron, when as a matter of fact, Peron got the taxpayers' money, more than 100 million dollars, during the prior administration.

Here in New York State there is supposed to be a contest for the United States senatorship between Robert Wagner, Democrat, and Jacob Javits who is running on the Republican ticket. It is more like an "Apres vous, Gaston," politeness. Nothing happens. Sen. Irving Ives has tried to make a martyr of Javits who does not look like a martyr of any kind, and Wagner seems to go about his business of being mayor of New York City as though there were no campaign at all. Everything is very peaceful and quiet and nobody discusses anything very seriously or with fire in his eye. It is very dull.

The greatest effort of the Republicans thus far has been to say that Mayor Wagner's successor, should he be elected, Abe Stark, while a very decent person, is not trained to be a mayor, he running a haberdashery and clothing store. So did Harry Truman at one time. Also Javits says that he knows more about foreign affairs than Wagner does. But nobody boasts about knowing anything about the United States.

Of course something could happen to brighten the campaign, a slip of the tongue might lead to a bit of self - exposure on the part of a candidate, such as the proposal for a four - day work week which could outprice American production even in American markets unless accompanied by an isolationist high tariff.

From the general attitude, it would look as though there were nothing to argue about, no vast differences of opinion, no varieties of public opinion. The Republican campaign is centered on "I Like Ike"; the Democratic campaign on the hole in Stevenson's shoe.

The real issue, of course, is the Negro question. Both candidates are hedging and are asking everybody to obey the law as interpreted by the Supreme Court. But what has actually happened in the South is more serious, more fundamental than the Warren opinion on segregation in the schools.

What has happened in the South is that an issue which both white and Negro communal leaders believed that they were handling well, has become so explosive as a result of the Supreme Court decision that it reflects in many aspects, similar anti-white movements in other parts of the world. And the white population has organized movements for states rights that have actually put a third party on the ballot in some states with T. Coleman Andrews, the former Eisenhower tax collector who hates the income tax, as its candidate.

The third party will not, of course, send Andrews to the White House but it gives evidence of being a rallying post for those who are weary of the South being the tail to a Northern kite.

On the other hand, the enormous migration of Southern Negroes to the large industrial cities of the North, cities which have not usually been Democratic but have become so, forces the Democratic politicians to view their fortunes with strabismic eyes; in fact, they are so cross-eyed that what they see in the North frightens them more than what they see in the South and both frighten them plenty.

Politicians dislike even to mention the Negro question, but that is what faces this country where about 10 per cent of the population thinks in terms of equal rights which the Negroes contend are unavailable to them because of their color. And in the South, there are those who insist that Negroes should not have equal social rights no matter what economic advantages they enjoy. The social fear is inter-marriage.

Questions of this nature cannot be buried in the sterile sands of campaign verbiage.

Mind Rule To Help Ward Off Arthritis

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Generally we think of farmers as being just about the healthiest people alive. They spend most of their lives working outdoors.

However, farmers as a group seem to have more than their share of many ills. In fact, the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation says that 23 per cent of the nation's farmers know the aches and pains of arthritis, America's No. 1 crippler.

Contributing Factors

We don't know exactly why this is so because we don't know the causes of most arthritic diseases. We do know, however, that certain contributing factors will help these diseases get started.

Fatigue and worry probably are responsible more often than any other factor.

You won't be stricken with arthritis simply because you overwork yourself a little; but by pushing yourself beyond the limits nature has set for you, you may be helping to hasten it.

Farmers perform hard physical labor year after year.

Continuing to do this without a letup and without adequate relaxation may be at least a partial cause for the toll arthritis takes among rural residents. Exposure to the elements might also have something to do with it.

The Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation recommends the following rules to help farmers avoid arthritis. I think this is good advice for you city dwellers, too.

1. Don't overdo more than you absolutely must.
2. Get sufficient rest.
3. Stop for a breather several times during the day.
4. Prevent wear and tear on the muscles by warming up before a day of strenuous activity. Simple setting up exercises will do.
5. Start the day with the lightest chores.
6. Try to overcome worry and unpleasant situations.
7. Don't forget to have regular medical checkups.

WASHINGTON (AP) — This week Secretary of State Dulles walked head first into an American dilemma — one of the biggest — and when he emerged on the other side it still wasn't clear what this country would or could do about it.

The dilemma is colonialism. This country has not provided open leadership in trying to end colonialism, either under the Democrats or Republicans. Yet the future of the world may revolve around this problem.

Since the war the big colonial powers of Western Europe — including Britain and France — have yielded independence to more than 500 million people. But hundreds of millions aren't free.

Russia is encouraging them, stirring them up. When they get their independence — as they will, sooner or later — they may move into the Russian camp if they have no reason to thank this country or its allies.

This is the dilemma: Britain and France are military allies of this country in the struggle against Russia. If the United States pressures them openly and persistently to yield their colonies, the alliance may be wrecked.

But if the United Sates doesn't take some kind of anticolonial leadership the dependent peoples — or those who have recently won their freedom — will link the United States with Britain and France.

At his news conference Tuesday Dulles was asked about a reported split between this country and Britain and France over the seizure of the Suez Canal by Egyptian President Nasser, an open foe of colonialism. Until 1936 Egypt had not been free for 2,500 years.

Dulles, with an eye cocked at Nasser and the Middle East Arabs, said "colonialism" is a subject where the U. S. approach is not always "identical" with that of Britain and France.

What he said next could hardly sound very firm to colonial peoples. He said "I suspect" America's role will be to "try to aid that process without identifying it's if 100 per cent with the so-called colonial powers" or with the countries seeking independence as "rapidly as possible."

How is the United States going to aid the process?" Dulles didn't say. There does not appear to be a clearly stated American policy to which the dependent peoples can look.

Of course something could happen to brighten the campaign, a slip of the tongue might lead to a bit of self - exposure on the part of a candidate, such as the proposal for a four - day work week which could outprice American production even in American markets unless accompanied by an isolationist high tariff.

From the general attitude, it would look as though there were nothing to argue about, no vast differences of opinion, no varieties of public opinion. The Republican campaign is centered on "I Like Ike"; the Democratic campaign on the hole in Stevenson's shoe.

The real issue, of course, is the Negro question. Both candidates are hedging and are asking everybody to obey the law as interpreted by the Supreme Court. But what has actually happened in the South is more serious, more fundamental than the Warren opinion on segregation in the schools.

What has happened in the South is that an issue which both white and Negro communal leaders believed that they were handling well, has become so explosive as a result of the Supreme Court decision that it reflects in many aspects, similar anti-white movements in other parts of the world. And the white population has organized movements for states rights that have actually put a third party on the ballot in some states with T. Coleman Andrews, the former Eisenhower tax collector who hates the income tax, as its candidate.

The third party will not, of course, send Andrews to the White House but it gives evidence of being a rallying post for those who are weary of the South being the tail to a Northern kite.

On the other hand, the enormous migration of Southern Negroes to the large industrial cities of the North, cities which have not usually been Democratic but have become so, forces the Democratic politicians to view their fortunes with strabismic eyes; in fact, they are so cross-eyed that what they see in the North frightens them more than what they see in the South and both frighten them plenty.

Politicians dislike even to mention the Negro question, but that is what faces this country where about 10 per cent of the population thinks in terms of equal rights which the Negroes contend are unavailable to them because of their color. And in the South, there are those who insist that Negroes should not have equal social rights no matter what economic advantages they enjoy. The social fear is inter-marriage.

Questions of this nature cannot be buried in the sterile sands of campaign verbiage.

Social Happenings

Church Society Holds Meeting At The Church

The quarterly meeting of the Woman's Association of First Presbyterian Church was held in the church Wednesday evening.

Mrs. C. L. Musser, president, presided over the meeting and she read the association hymn.

The impressive devotions were led by Mrs. Leonard Stephenson, who gave the motto of the association "Christ Is The Way". She elaborated on the subject that "God Commands Us To Go Forth and Teach" and emphasized that power to teach must come from the individual.

She offered prayer for missionaries to close this period.

Reports from all circle leaders were given, and Mrs. Neil Hand, who thanked the association for the reception given for Rev. and Mrs. Hand recently and also for the re-decorating of the manse.

Mrs. Musser also introduced Superintendent of the Schools, Mr. W. A. Smith, who spoke on the bond issue.

The report of the secretary was given by Mrs. Herbert Clickner in the absence of Mrs. Frank Dawson and the treasurer, Miss Kathleen Stookey also gave her report.

Mrs. Roy Plymale, supply chairman, reported on the sending of bed clothing to Forest Hill Community Project at Morris Fork, Kentucky, also that 41 pairs of hand knitted mittens were ready to be sent to Korea.

It was also reported that a box is to be sent to Mrs. Quismunda, a missionary, in Indonesia.

Announcement was made of the district meeting to be held at the Greenfield Presbyterian Church October 24 with a coffee hour at 9 a. m. and also the same type of meeting on October 21 at Eastminster Presbyterian Church, Columbus.

Plans were formulated for a "Smorgasbord" to be held at the church at a future date.

Mrs. Charles Hire, chairman, presented the slate of officers for the coming year who are: Mrs. C. L. Musser, president; Mrs. John Forsythe, vice president; Mrs. Frank Dawson, secretary; Mrs. Herbert Clickner, assistant secretary; Miss Kathleen Stookey, treasurer and Mrs. Perse Harlow, fellowship chairman.

Mrs. Charles James and Mrs. W. A. Smith presented a vocal duet, accompanied by Mrs. Russell Giebelhouse and the program was highlighted with a colored film with a sound tract, "Decision In Thailand," which was the story of a young Buddhist man to become a Christian which was most inspiring.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. Neil Hand and a social hour was held in Westminster Hall with dainty refreshments served by Circle 6, Mrs. W. A. Smith, leader.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: We had a discussion, among a group of friends, on "What a child owes a parent, and what a parent owes a child."

I had said that a child owes its parents nothing but respect; and that the parent owes the child good care until he (or she) has reached 21 years of age; or until he has completed his schooling, after which he should be on his own.

I said also that after children marry, if there is a problem of sickness or poverty, the parents should help all they can—for who else would the children turn to?

But there was great difference of opinion in the group. Some claimed a child owes the parents very much more than I said; therefore I would like your views on the subject.

K. J.

DEAR K. J.: Not long ago, a well known family relations counsellor stated that parents have amply discharged their "debt" to children if they give them good good family name. He implied that health, a good education and a grown "children" should accept responsibility for themselves as a matter of course—not expecting, and not necessarily receiving, any further parental "giving."

His view is much the same as yours. And I have no doubt that he would agree, too, with your further provision that parents ought to lend a hand, so far as they can, if illness or poverty should overtake grown sons or daughters.

But when you say "a child owes its parents nothing but respect," I think you are stunting the child's growth by such a standard. Children who live, grow up in time. And, as part of the maturing process that leads to true manhood and womanhood, they should be educated to behave both responsibly and generously, in caring for others—especially family — who may need services they can offer.

To champion the cause of self-government for grown sons and daughters, to argue their right to call their souls their own, certainly doesn't mean that parents, on the afternoon slope, are to be treated as scrap material — not worth "saving" from the children's angle.

Your idea of equity, for parents versus children, seems to make sheep and goats of the two categories—with parents the goats. I think the really fair break is to give both sides encouragement to be realistic—and also big, and practical, and free from preconceived strictures—in helping each other over the mountains and through the valleys of life.

Police Shun Action In Boy Arson Case

LYNN, Mass. (AP) — Authorities say there is nothing they can do directly about three young arsonists blamed for a series of fires Tuesday in which nine fire fighters were injured.

Police said the trio admitted setting the major conflagration, which swept through three wooden buildings, but that inasmuch as two of the primary school pupils are only 6 and the third 7, even juvenile court is out of the question. They said any punishment must be administered by parents where it will do the most good.

Iowa Farmers 'Like' Ike But Frown on Farm Policy

Editor's Note: Following is another in a series of articles by veteran Associated press political reporters who are surveying sentiment in key states across the country.

By OVID A. MARTIN

DES MOINES (AP) — The presidential campaign in Iowa — the heart of the politically important corn belt — is shaping up largely as a contest between the personal popularity of President Eisenhower and a dislike for his farm policies.

A lot of farmers — and they make up the unknown factor for the election — say they "like" the President but are dissatisfied with his farm program. This apparent paradox complicates the outlook for this traditionally Republican state.

Iowa is one of the few farm states in which farm income is down this year from last.

Supporters of Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, concede that Eisenhower is popular throughout the state, but they question the extent to which this will be reflected at the ballot box.

Republican leaders agree there is strong dissatisfaction among farmers but say there is not enough to give the state to Stevenson.

How, then, will this issue of Eisenhower popularity versus dislike of his farm programs be resolved on election day?

In seeking an answer to this question, this reporter found that a majority of more than 100 persons interviewed — including farmers, business and professional men, newspapermen and political leaders — said they believed Eisenhower would win if the election were held now.

But some insisted that changed conditions — such as a sizable decline in hog and cattle prices before election time — might turn the state to Stevenson.

Eisenhower won Iowa by a majority of 357,000 out of 1,259,000 votes in 1952. GOP State Chairman Don Pierson, while conceding the President will lose votes this year, predicted a victory margin of at least 100,000 votes.

But Jake More, the Democratic state chairman, said he sees great similarity between the campaign and the one in 1948 when Iowa — to the surprise and consternation of Republicans — went for Harry S. Truman in his surprise victory over Thomas E. Dewey. Then, as now, there was dissatisfaction over Republican farm policies.

More and other Democratic workers say Stevenson is gaining new supporters every day and predict that today's apparent Eisenhower margin will be overcome.

The Eisenhower popularity was forcefully demonstrated — even to the Democrats — by the warm welcome given him by an estimated 350,000 persons during a two-day visit he made to the state late last month to speak before the National Field Days at Newton.

Schools turned out and townspeople and farmers alike stopped their work to cheer him along his route and at the field day affair.

Stevenson, who followed a day later and was in the state less than a day, was greeted by a smaller turnout.

Republicans acclaimed the Eisenhower reception as a victory indicator. But Democrats argued that Eisenhower's big welcome was because he is President and did not necessarily mean support at election time.

Many farmers, interviewed in fields where they were harvesting corn or soybeans or looking after their hogs, spoke highly of Eisenhower but complained about the farm situation.

A big question mark is the vote of organized labor. While Democrats are counting upon labor votes, they are faced with the attitude expressed by a Des Moines electrical worker.

"I'm not mad at anybody," he said. "I'm getting the best wages I ever got. I may vote and I may not."

Industry - labor relations have been quite peaceful in Iowa under the Eisenhower administration. Republicans expect this to work to their party's advantage.

Kefauver Vacations In New Mexico

SANTA FE, N. M. (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver took a one-day vacaton from his arduous coast-to-coast campaigning Wednesday and spent part of it watching the first World Series game on television.

The Democratic vice presidential nominee reported. "I've always been a Dodger rooter, but I'm a little afraid of the Yankees this year."

His resting spot was the ranch of Robert McKinney, publisher of the New Mexican, Santa Fe daily newspaper, near this city. A swimming pool and other facilities are available to the senator.

Highway Bonds May Be Used Up by 1961

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A state highway official says that the present half-billion-dollar highway improvement bond issues will be used up by 1961. He called upon the next legislature to authorize "adequate financing" of new roads after that date.

John J. Heier, deputy state highway director in charge of planning, told architects attending a short course in roadside development:

"The bond issue program was initiated as a catch up program. Because of the vast increase in traffic, it will result in only a keepup program. Without more funds being authorized in the next legislative session, our program will have a huge drop."

Heier said Ohio has an "immediate need" of 4.5 billion dollars for state roads.

". . . Expanded into 1969, with expected traffic growth, the anticipated highway needs will total 7.2 billion dollars for state highways," he said. "These figures represent anticipated needs and not costs to bring an entire system up to top standards of design."

He called for a "forward looking program" by the legislature, saying the number of automobiles and use of highways continue to grow.

He added:

"Procrastination at the legislative level shows up two or three years later in the highway program, since commitments must be deferred until funds are assured, and plan preparation by cities is usually deferred until financing is assured."

Georgia Seeking North Industries

It will be Griffin's fourth trip to the north in search of new industry for Georgia. He has made similar trips to New York, Cleveland and Chicago.

Why wash your clothes in dirty water?

Now you can use spanking-hot fresh water, fresh detergent, on every load!

With the new 1957 Frigidaire Automatic Washer—you can save enough hot water to do as many as 10 extra loads per month—save up to 21 good-sized boxes of detergent a year.

Why is the Frigidaire Automatic the Savingest Washer Ever Built?

More efficient action! See the difference. Final rinse water from a Frigidaire Washer is sparkling clear and clean! Not only lint but tiniest particles of soap-scum, too—are flushed over the tub and down the drain—with no film left on clothes. The Frigidaire Float-Over Wash and Rinse does it all, with less water—and without a filter trap to clean.

The Cleanest Wash You've Ever Seen—Without Rubbing

With the new Control Tower you can wash anything that's washable—automatically. And you can do 3 loads in the time it takes many other leading washers to do two!

The secret is Rub-Free Washing Action, exclusive with Frigidaire Washers. Far faster and more efficient, it has no jerking, flailing blades to wear out clothes in the wash. Super-suds-charged water alone moves the clothes. Every piece is always under water. Frigidaire Rub-Free Action helps stretch your clothing dollar.

Yes, you save so many ways you'd be smart to get a new Frigidaire Automatic Washer now. Come in and see its amazing features—today.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

"Brahorn" cattle still are some what new in Fayette County, but indications are their numbers are going to increase.

Recently when a 2-year-old "Brahorn" steer sold at the Union Stockyards here, it attracted much attention and aroused a surprisingly large amount of interest on the part of cattlemen generally.

I might explain that a "Brahorn" steer is the product of a Brahma bull and a Shorthorn cow, and that the steer sold here was raised by Dr. Robert L. Little, Jeffersonville, on his farm on Route 70, three miles northwest of that village.

The "Brahorn" steer weighed 1,540 pounds and brought $26.50 per 100 pounds, netting the owner $402.76.

Dr. Little and his father, Dr. H. L. Little, who died recently imported the first pure-blood Brahman cattle into Ohio. They found that by crossing them with other breeds, they could produce high quality beef at a minimum cost according to Dr. Little who is very enthusiastic over his Brahmas.

Bulls and cows from the Little herd have been shipped to many distant points, including foreign counties, and three weeks ago Dr. Little sold three bulls, one going to Lebanon, another to Bainbridge and one to Cedarville. Last year he shipped a bull to Nicaragua and another to Colombia. At the present time he is feeding 24 head of mixed breeds and will market them in about a month.

They are the product of a Brahma bull and Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn cows.

Dr. Little has 30 head of pure-blooded Brahmas in his main herd at present.

SEE NO DIFFERENCE

So far I have not been able to note any difference in the speed of drivers on the main highways, since the speed limit was raised from 50 to 60 miles per hour, for passenger vehicles, and 50 miles an hour for trucks, effective Oct. 1.

So many drivers had previously exceeded the 50 miles per hour that now no particular difference can be noted.

Incidentally I understand the State Highway Patrol will continue to arrest speeders wherever found and the number is expected to increase.

* * *

BIG HAILSTONES

One of the worst hailstorms ever occurring in Fayette County fell over a narrow strip in the western edge of the county, years ago when the late M. E. Wilson was superintendent of the Fayette County schools.

The hailstones were so large that they crashed through the fabric top of his automobile and left pronounced dents on the body of the car.

He was forced to hold a coat over his head to protect himself from the stones, some of which were as large as golf balls.

* * *

OLD HEATING PIPES

Dayton Power and Light Co. workmen, laying connections on East St. for the new six-inch main extending from the main in Paint St., to the one in East St., Tuesday, came upon the wooden housing of the hot water pipes which were part of the old Smead heating plant, established in 1902, or 54 years ago, as the second central heating plant in the nation.

The housing, a box, some 28 inches wide and 16 inches deep, consisted of two inch thick white pine boards, which were still in good state of preservation.

The hot water pipes, part of the system laid in the uptown area and some nearby residential sections, were two inches in diameter with a one-inch pipe used to supply air to the system.

The old housing was full of gas which had collected in it over a period of years, and workmen stepped back until the gas escaped. The housing was cut in two and filled with cement.

Central heat in the city was abolished some 10 or 12 years ago when it was found to be operating at a loss to Dayton Power and Light Co., which had inherited it from the old Washington Gas and Electric Company.

The American Legion building on N. Fayette St., is the former central heating station of the old Smead plant, and was built with unusually thick walls.

* * *

ROADS DEATH TRAPS

Highways are death traps to large numbers of raccoons and opossums, and recently I counted six half grown raccoons, and three opossums which had fallen prey to the fast moving cars.

The average motorist slows down or stops rather than hit the animals, but many drivers do not even see the little nocturnal prowlers because they become confused and start across the road as the car approaches, too late for the driver to see them.

Most of the animals, I noted had been killed within a few feet of the outer edges of the roads.

Abandoned Tunnel Once Holdup Scene

BUTTE, MONT. (AP) — The 66-year - old Homestake Tunnel through the Continental Divide near Butte has been abandoned by the Northern Pacific Railway. The 682-foot tunnel, 11 miles southeast of this mining city was replaced by a half-million-dollar open cut.

A sensational attempted train robbery occurred in the tunnel May 7, 1907. Three men were sent to Montana Prison for killing the engineer and wounding a fireman in the bold holdup attempt. The tunnel was abandoned because of high maintenance costs and the danger of falling rocks.

Cannery Re-Opens After Public Appeal

SPENCER, W. Va. (AP)—Business had been so bad for the past few years at Roane County's community cannery that School Superintendent Alan V. Morford issued a public warning it was to close because of poor patronage.

That did it. Business now is so brisk the cannery is open twice as often as before, and Morford says it will soon be paying its own way if the boom continues.

Change of Pace

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. (AP)—One of Elizabeth City's busy intersections is known as Dog Corners. The name dates back to the 1890's when a popular barroom faced the streets. To pass the time of day, men would move outside where dog fights were held with as many as six canines participating.

DAVID MOORE, 5, lies in bed in Rosemead, Calif., suffering a severe case of asthma and suffering perhaps even more with the knowledge that his 8-year-old fox terrier Teddy, shown with him, must be put to sleep permanently. Teddy has a brain tumor. David has known Teddy as a pal and guardian ever since he can remember. An operation might save Teddy, but brain tumor operations are expensive, even for dogs. David has been saving his pennies, hoping to pay. Doctors say David's illness is complicated considerably by Teddy's case. (International Soundphoto)

Ordinance Doesn't Provide Extradition

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) Policeman C. J. Simpson tried to enforce an ordinance prohibiting stray mules.

The mule kept out of reach during a long chase and finally trotted over the city limit line where he was out of reach of the Durham ordinance. Said Simpson's official report:

"When said mule left city, I stopped."

Judge Weighs Own Case- -Pays Fine!

DETROIT (AP) — Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams of suburban Dearborn entered the courtroom and pounded the gavel.

The bailiff called out the first case: "The people against Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams," and handed him three unpaid parking tickets.

The judge found himself guilty on two of the counts and fined himself $10 with an alternative of four days in jail. He paid the fine. On the third ticket, he argued with himself, upheld his argument and dismissed the charge.

"Brahorn" cattle still are some what new in Fayette County, but indications are their numbers are going to increase.

Recently when a 2-year-old "Brahorn" steer sold at the Union Stockyards here, it attracted much attention and aroused a surprisingly large amount of interest on the part of cattlemen generally.

I might explain that a "Brahorn" steer is the product of a Brahma bull and a Shorthorn cow, and that the steer sold here was raised by Dr. Robert L. Little, Jeffersonville, on his farm on Route 70, three miles northwest of that village.

The "Brahorn" steer weighed 1,540 pounds and brought $26.50 per 100 pounds, netting the owner $402.76.

Dr. Little and his father, Dr. H. L. Little, who died recently imported the first pure-blood Brahman cattle into Ohio. They found that by crossing them with other breeds, they could produce high quality beef at a minimum cost according to Dr. Little who is very enthusiastic over his Brahmas.

Bulls and cows from the Little herd have been shipped to many distant points, including foreign counties, and three weeks ago Dr. Little sold three bulls, one going to Lebanon, another to Bainbridge and one to Cedarville. Last year he shipped a bull to Nicaragua and another to Colombia. At the present time he is feeding 24 head of mixed breeds and will market them in about a month.

They are the product of a Brahma bull and Angus, Hereford and Shorthorn cows.

Dr. Little has 30 head of pure-blooded Brahmas in his main herd at present.

SEE NO DIFFERENCE

So far I have not been able to note any difference in the speed of drivers on the main highways, since the speed limit was raised from 50 to 60 miles per hour, for passenger vehicles, and 50 miles an hour for trucks, effective Oct. 1.

So many drivers had previously exceeded the 50 miles per hour that now no particular difference can be noted.

Incidentally I understand the State Highway Patrol will continue to arrest speeders wherever found and the number is expected to increase.

BIG HAILSTONES

One of the worst hailstorms ever occurring in Fayette County fell over a narrow strip in the western edge of the county, years ago when the late M. E. Wilson was superintendent of the Fayette County schools.

The hailstones were so large that they crashed through the fabric top of his automobile and left pronounced dents on the body of the car.

He was forced to hold a coat over his head to protect himself from the stones, some of which were as large as golf balls.

OLD HEATING PIPES

Dayton Power and Light Co. workmen, laying connections on East St. for the new six-inch main extending from the main in Paint St., to the one in East St., Tuesday, came upon the wooden housing of the hot water pipes which were part of the old Smead heating plant, established in 1902, or 54 years ago, as the second central heating plant in the nation.

The housing, a box, some 28 inches wide and 16 inches deep, consisted of two inch thick white pine boards, which were still in good state of preservation.

The hot water pipes, part of the system laid in the uptown area and some nearby residential sections, were two inches in diameter with a one-inch pipe used to supply air to the system.

The old housing was full of gas which had collected in it over a period of years, and workmen stepped back until the gas escaped. The housing was cut in two and filled with cement.

Central heat in the city was abolished some 10 or 12 years ago when it was found to be operating at a loss to Dayton Power and Light Co., which had inherited it from the old Washington Gas and Electric Company.

The American Legion building on N. Fayette St., is the former central heating station of the old Smead plant, and was built with unusually thick walls.

ROADS DEATH TRAPS

Highways are death traps to large numbers of raccoons and opossums, and recently I counted six half grown raccoons, and three opossums which had fallen prey to the fast moving cars.

The average motorist slows down or stops rather than hit the animals, but many drivers do not even see the little nocturnal prowlers because they become confused and start across the road as the car approaches, too late for the driver to see them.

Most of the animals, I noted had been killed within a few feet of the outer edges of the roads.

Abandoned Tunnel Once Holdup Scene

BUTTE, MONT. (AP) — The 66-year - old Homestake Tunnel through the Continental Divide near Butte has been abandoned by the Northern Pacific Railway. The 682-foot tunnel, 11 miles southeast of this mining city was replaced by a half-million-dollar open cut.

A sensational attempted train robbery occurred in the tunnel May 7, 1907. Three men were sent to Montana Prison for killing the engineer and wounding a fireman in the bold holdup attempt. The tunnel was abandoned because of high maintenance costs and the danger of falling rocks.

Cannery Re-Opens After Public Appeal

SPENCER, W. Va. (AP)—Business had been so bad for the past few years at Roane County's community cannery that School Superintendent Alan V. Morford issued a public warning it was to close because of poor patronage.

That did it. Business now is so brisk the cannery is open twice as often as before, and Morford says it will soon be paying its own way if the boom continues.

Change of Pace

ELIZABETH CITY, N.C. (AP)—One of Elizabeth City's busy intersections is known as Dog Corners. The name dates back to the 1890's when a popular barroom faced the streets. To pass the time of day, men would move outside where dog fights were held with as many as six canines participating.

DAVID MOORE, 5, lies in bed in Rosemead, Calif., suffering a severe case of asthma and suffering perhaps even more with the knowledge that his 8-year-old fox terrier Teddy, shown with him, must be put to sleep permanently. Teddy has a brain tumor. David has known Teddy as a pal and guardian ever since he can remember. An operation might save Teddy, but brain tumor operations are expensive, even for dogs. David has been saving his pennies, hoping to pay. Doctors say David's illness is complicated considerably by Teddy's case. (International Soundphoto)

Ordinance Doesn't Provide Extradition

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) Policeman C. J. Simpson tried to enforce an ordinance prohibiting stray mules.

The mule kept out of reach during a long chase and finally trotted over the city limit line where he was out of reach of the Durham ordinance. Said Simpson's official report:

"When said mule left city, I stopped."

Judge Weighs Own Case- -Pays Fine!

DETROIT (AP) — Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams of suburban Dearborn entered the courtroom and pounded the gavel.

The bailiff called out the first case: "The people against Associate Municipal Judge John T. McWilliams," and handed him three unpaid parking tickets.

The judge found himself guilty on two of the counts and fined himself $10 with an alternative of four days in jail. He paid the fine. On the third ticket, he argued with himself, upheld his argument and dismissed the charge.

Group Predicts Traffic Jam Coming Soon on Ohio River

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Ohio Valley Improvement Assn. fears the "greatest traffic jam in History" will come soon on the Ohio River unless spending for new dams is accelerated.

Advocating federal expenditures totaling 46 million dollars on these projects in the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1957, the group said the Ohio "is rapidly approaching the limit of its capacity."

Unless congress steps up the pace of its projects in the river, said OVIA, "continued economic development of the (Ohio) valley will be seriously retarded."

OVIA's views were set forth in a booklet submitted to Percival F. Brundage, director of the budget bureau.

William J. Hull, chairman of OVIA's legislative committee, wrote Brundage: "These navigation measures (proposed by OVIA) will return to the citizens of our country five to 10 times the investment required."

OVIA's recommended spending on the Ohio for fiscal 1958 was:

New Cumberland (W. Va.)—10 million dollars; Greenup (Ky.)—18 million; Markland (Ind.)—11 million; lock and dam 41 (Louisville, Ky.)—6 million; New Richmond (Ky.)—1 million.

In addition, OVIA recommended $400,000 more be appropriated by the new congress for planning "such additional projects on the main stem of the Ohio River as the secretary of the army may designate."

OVIA — a group representing business, farm and civic interests —said that in addition to the rapid growth of the Ohio valley "defense interests argue strongly for speeding up the (river) program."

OVIA said: "If the Suez Canal should be closed, heavy additional demands for water transportation of petroleum and its products on the Ohio - Mississippi river system would immediately arise.

"The inadequate navigation facilities on the Ohio would, in that event, become a most serious bottleneck. Moreover, the electric power requirements of the atomic energy program in the Ohio valley are dependent upon efficient low cost water transportation."

The group further recommended to Brundage these expenditures on Ohio river tributary projects:

Monongahela River — Hildebrand locks and dam—6 million; dam No. 8—1½ million; lock and dam No. 5 and Opekiska lock and dam—$300,000 (planning only).

Cumberland River — Cheatham locks and dam—1½ million; Old Hickory lock and dam—$700,000; Barkley lock and dam—5½ million.

With respect to flood control in the Ohio valley, the association said it agreed with the army engineers' program and recommended $29,005,000 be appropriated for that purpose next year.

The group added: "Funds totaling $3,800,000 are recommended for fiscal 1958 for new construction on flood control projects at Allegheny River reservoir, Pennsylvania and New York; Roseville, Ohio; Lake City, Tenn.; and Mason J. Niblock levee, Ind."

The association urged further that planning funds totaling $1,140,000 be made available for advance engineering and design on flood control projects at Summerville, W. Va., levee unit 5, Wabash River, Ind., Nolan Reservoir, Ky. No. 2 Barren River reservoir, Ky., Sturgis, Ky.

Falling Coconut Liability Set Up

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Question: When is Miami liable for damage caused by a falling coconut?

Answer: When it has "had notice the coconut was about to fall."

Question: How can you tell?

Answer: "A reasonable man would assume it was about to fall when it turns brown," explained Asst. City attorney Jack Smith to city commissioners.

After that exchange, the commissioners okayed the payment of $300 to a woman whose foot was hurt by one falling from a city-owned tree.

Coal Scientists Challenge Promoters of Atomic Energy

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — The drive to make atomic-powered electric plants as cheap to operate as those powered by coal is running up against anew challenge today.

Scientists are trying just as hard to make coal - powered plants more efficient and less costly — and thus stretching out the cost gap between the conventional generator and the nuclear one of the future.

Some corporations are developing split personalities in tackling the problem. They are spending millions in an effort to build a less costly atomic power plant. At the same time they are driving to make coal fired power plants more efficient.

Atomic electricity competitive with coal will be realized in other lands before it is in the United States where most areas are rich in cheap conventional fuels. The British hope to get atomic power as cheap as power from coal within five years. The goal in the United States is now 10 years — and that for those areas which have relatively high fuel costs.

The dates depend mainly on how fast nuclear scientists and engineers can cut costs of building and operating atomic plants — tempered by the equally earnest efforts of other scientists to raise the efficiency and cut the costs of conventional plants.

Lewis L. Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, says that thanks to the present research drive in nuclear science, "a major break - through, putting us at or near the goal, could come with some suddenness."

And Willis Gale, chairman of Commonwealth Edison of Chicago, says this nation must strive to hold its lead in technological development rather than strain to attain fixed goals of kilowatt capacity by stepped up building of atomic plants of current design.

Letter to the Editor

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:

I am enclosing some material on the Taxpayers Assn. of Erie, Pa. I have worked in many communities which have these Tax Payers Assns., which are on the alert to see that the taxpayers' dollar reaches as far as possible. Also all new Bond issues and tax levies must first clear this organization and have their approval in, order to receive the support at the election from this membership.

We have a problem in Fayette County at present over the city and county school situation. There is a lot of political horseplay going on. Neither side is too concerned about protecting the taxpayers' dollars or whether we, through these bond issues which will probably run for 20 to 25 years will be taking on an obligation which in case of an economic depression might rise up to haunt the family who is trying to pay out on their home or farm.

Sure we have to have schools. Sure we want them to be equal to the best to be found anywhere else. But are they being planned with an eye to economical operation? Will we get the new buildings at a big tax increase only to find out that we must have larger levies to maintain them? And if so where do we stop and what will the total bill to the taxpayers be?

I should have lived so long as to remember the depression. I remember a couple of years back there when my total farm production wouldn't pay my bills and one of the most burdensome was the taxes I had to pay on the farm which included a road which did me absolutely no good. The tax was put on in lush times but had to be paid off in hard times. At that time we voted on a state constitutional amendment which forbid a real estate tax of more than 10 mills without a very strong majority vote on the part of the citizenry. Perhaps we should pause and ask ourselves the question are we building up a public debt the payment of which may or cause some of our people to lose their homes in case of hard times.

If we listen to the politicians the farmer is already in trouble. Won't he be in worse trouble with this increased debt?

Sure we got to have 'em. Let's be smart and investigate what they are going to cost to build and whether we are building in the most economical way and whether they can be maintained within present levies.

From what I have read on the subject I am not sold that we have the best answers as yet. I don't think we are ready to vote on the issue at this election. We should have many answers not yet explained. The people who are going to have to pay the bill are those who should make the decision and not the "hired help"! of the school systems.

P. S. I think we could use a Taxpayers' Assn., in Fayette County to help resolve the present and future problems having to do with the expenditure of tax monies.

EDITOR, RECORD-HERALD:

It seems to me, as it must to any fair-minded individual, that if the Rural Parents Assn., can only defeat the Miami Trace bond issue by personal insults and affronts to Mr. Hilty as well as Mr. Garrison — as their broadcast on Wednesday, Oct. 3, indicated — then Fayette County is a place of which I'm not very proud. It occurs to me that people around here have been sued for no more "personal injury" than those I heard today.

In fact, nearly all the RPA broadcasts and follow-up duplicate "Letters to the Editors" printed in the Record-Herald are comprised of just one factor— calling Miami Trace speakers liars and M. T. facts lies or misleading half-truths — or hidden truths.

If we must have a fight over this election, "Let's be fair— shall we?" Let's be honest — all of us.

City-Owned Utilities in Niles Pose Problem to Tax Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Should customers of a city-operated electric company help pay a big debt of a water company run by the same city? Or would it be more fair to increase property taxes to pay the debt?

That is the question the State Board of Tax Appeals is considering today. The city of Niles, which operates its own electric and water departments, wants the board to approve transfer of $100,000 from the electric fund to the water fund.

Niles City Solicitor R. C. Westenfield and Mayor Edward P. Lenney presented arguments for the transfer at a tax board hearing here Tuesday.

Niles gets its water from the Mahoning Valley Sanitary District (MVSD) which has issued bonds to double the amount of water it can supply. The Niles share of this debt is $1,333,333 with the first year payment set at $107,000. After that, payments drop to $53,000 a year.

Niles officials say they have a $346,770 surplus in their light fund and are unable to pay the debt to the MVASD from their current water revenues.

Westenfield said present water rates are as high as in neighboring cities and that if the fund transfer is not approved a 2.65 mill property tax increase will be necessary.

He said water and light customers are substantially the same persons. The light department does not need such a large surplus, Westenfield said, and if the transfer is approved it still will have enough money in reserve for emergencies and improvements to the system.

A telegram from the Niles Chamber of Commerce, asking the board to approve the transfer, arrived after the hearing.

There were no protests made during the hearing. A tax board member said the board is called on only to prove the legality of the transfer and the final decision is up to common pleas court.

A board decision is expected in a week or ten days.

Enough's Enough!, Howls Harried Dakota Household

DICKINSON, N. D. (AP)—A series of shenanigans perpetrated on the Don Conlon family here didn't strike the Conlons as funny.

First, someone telephoned an undertaker that there had been a death at the Conlon home. The mortician responded, but found everyone well and reasonably happy, although a bit perturbed.

Shortly, a plumber appeared. He'd been called to the Conlon home by telephone.

About the time the Conlons had bade the plumber goodbye, a moving van chugged up. It wasn't needed, either.

Then a telephone repair man showed, also in response to a phony summons.

The Conlons got tired and put in a bona fide call themselves — to report the monkey business to police, who are investigating.

House of 'Poverty' Yields $18,878

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Authorities are holding an elderly widow and her middle-aged son after finding $18,878 in cash scattered about a two-room house where they lived in apparent poverty.

The money, some of it in gold coins and some in bills that went out of circulation 30 years ago, was found when authorities went to the house to remove the body of John Domke, 87, who had died eight days previously.

His widow, Mary, 78, was hospitalized on court orders for observation. Her son, Albert, 52, battled police who took her away.

17th Century Pope Innocent To Be Cited

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Innocent XI, a humble man who dared stand against powerful Louis XIV of France, will be beatified Sunday in St. Peter's Basilica.

Center of the glittering ceremony will be the silver - masked body of the 17th century pope.

Pope Piux XII has given the pontifical robes to clothe the body of Innocent XI, and the papal ring that has been placed on his silver-covered hand. The crystal coffin containing the pontiff's body will be exposed at the culminating moment of the solemn and joyful ceremony — when the papal brief is read proclaiming Innocent one of the blessed of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pope Pius, from his Castel Gandolfo summer residence, will speak exalting Innocent's virtues. Later in the day, Pius will come to St. Peter's Basilica to lead in the first act of veneration of the newly beatified pontiff.

Innocent XI, born Benedetto Odescalchi May 16, 1611, at Como, northern Italy died Aug. 12, 1689, in Rome's Quirinale Palace, then the pope's residence but today the official residence of the president of Italy.

The process for beatification began in 1714.

Ohio Idle Pay Claims Declining

COLUMBUS (AP)—Both new and continuing claims for unemployment compensation dropped in number during the week ended Sept. 29, the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation reports.

New claims for the week totaled 5,187 compared with 6,030 the previous week, and continuing claims of those unemployed one week or more totaled 33,495 compared with 35,989 for the week ended Sept. 22.

Delays Decision In Election Cases

COLUMBUS (AP) — Two election cases were not among decisions handed down Wednesday by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Marshall M. Carlisle of Jackson seeks a court order to place his name on ballots as an independent candidate for judge of the Fourth District Appellate Court serving 15 counties in southern Ohio.

William T. Reed of Waverly seeks a similar order to get on ballots as an independent candidate for Pike County prosecutor.

Election boards of Pike and Scioto counties struck so many names from petitions of both candidates that they lacked sufficient valid signatures to qualify. The boards said statute prevented the candidates, who are attorneys, from notarizing names on their own petitions.

Sewer Service Charge Said Accepted Fact

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Another type of regular utility charge—the sewer service charge—is becoming a generally accepted fact in Ohio, state water pollution control board records show.

There are 310 municipalities with sewage treatment plants or access to such plants through connecting lines. Of that number, 272 now collect sewer service charges to finance the service.

The communities include 85 cities and 154 villages with sewage plants of their own and 22 cities and 49 villages that use sewage plants of larger communities.

Ohio has eight cities with more than 100,000 population. Seven have sewer service charges—Akron, Canton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton and Toledo. The eighth, Youngstown, had plans nearly completed for a 10-million-dollar sewage treatment plant and has begun construction of necessary intercepting sewers.

Youngstown, which has a sewage discharge permit that expired Oct. 1, has indicated it will adopt a sewer service charge. City council passed an ordinance calling on the city engineer to draft a sewer rental ordinance.

Both Youngstown and Warren were granted permit extensions earlier this year to give them time to comply with the state's anti-pollution law. The extensions were to Oct. 1, but the board won't meet again until the third week in October to consider progress of the two cities.

Municipalities with sewage treatment facilities have a total population of 4 ½ million people. Of this figure, sewage treatment for 2 million people is considered adequate.

Of the 2½ million without adequate facilities, all but 200,000 will have satisfactory services when improvements now under construction are finished.

In addition, one million persons live in cities and villages with no sewage treatment. About 250,000 will be served by plants under construction now and a like number by plants ready for construction next year.

The other one-half million live largely in villages, of which more than one-half are communities regarded as not having critical pollution problems now.

Board records show cities and villages of all sizes use sewer service charges, including 38 villages with less than 1,000 population each.

Most communities collect sewer charges when they collect water bills. Some bill separately for sewer charges.

The charges vary considerably. Some communities use them for entire financing of sewerage systems. Others use a combination of general tax levies, special tax assessments and sewer charges.

A few use sewer charges only for operation and maintenance, after financing sewer systems and treatment plants with tax money.

Some communities collect sewer charges before they build treatment plants. This reduces the money they will need to borrow for construction. It also makes construction bonds more attractive because the cities prove they can collect the charges.

The Cincinnati sewer charge went into effect in 1948 and the city collected 6 million dollars by the time it had completed the first of three treatment plans in 1954.

Other cities that have done this include Nelsonville, which collected nearly $100,000 before its treatment plant was completed this year; Napoleon, which has collected $125,000 but hasn't started its plant yet, and Sandusky, which has collected $250,000 and does not have a plant.

Conneaut's plant should be completed by the first of 1957. That city is collecting the sewer charge now. Ashtabula started collecting the charge before its plant was finished about one year ago.

FEDD DETERMAN, 19, newly elected president of the Claremont college sophomore class, Claremont, Calif., stands in New York, a bit stunned, perhaps, at finding himself there. Freshmen shanghaied him from bed, bundled him aboard a plane as a counter-action against hazing by the sophs. It was a switch. Usually the sophomore president winds up clothesless on Mount Baldy. (International)

Trago Says Chances 'Good' In His Drive for Election

JACKSON, Ohio (AP)—David L. Trago, nominated as Democratic candidate for Jackson County sheriff while serving a jail sentence on a morals charge, says he thinks his chances are "real good" to win Nov. 6.

"I'm doing all I know to do," the 52-year-old former sheriff said of his campaign. "I'm seeing the people, and everywhere I've been they've welcomed me. I think my chances are real good."

He completed his one-year jail sentence Aug. 31. His wife paid his $2,800 fine with donations from "about 25 friends."

Juvenile court had found him guilty last year of making immoral advances to a young Gallipolis Air Force recruit. His trial lasted four weeks.

"The whole business was inspired by a hand full of would-be politicians," Trago said, "they happen to be Republicans and I blame them. But I don't blame the Republican party."

When Trago was elected sheriff four years ago in this normally Republican county, he was the first Democrat to hold the office in 20 years and the fifth in some 80 years. He won with a 107-vote margin.

While in jail, he was ousted as sheriff by Jackson County commissioners last December for being absent from his duties for a period of 90 days. Republican John Evans, a hardware dealer, was appointed to the post.

Now Evans is his opponent in the race for the office.

Even while in Gallia County jail, Trago scored a sweeping victory in the Democratic primary last May. He gathered 1,688 votes, more than the combined total of his two opponents, both former deputies in his office. Evans won the Republican nomination with 4,063 votes.

Trago, a molder by trade, has been unemployed since his release from jail. He said he does not plan to seek work until he knows the outcome of the election.

Cincinnati Jury Hearing Evidence

CINCINNATI (AP)—Testimony begins today at the trial of Denver Powell, 45-year-old ex-convict, charged with first degree murder in the slaying of a delicatessen operator during a holdup.

Selection of a jury of six men and six women was completed in criminal court here Wednesday.

Powell, who says he is from El Centro, Calif., is charged with aiding James Grigsby, now dead, in the $38 holdup here Nov. 27, 1947, in which John Schreck, 61, was shot to death.

Police said Powell claims that Grigsby, killed in a Hazard, Ky., saloon shooting two months after the holdup, fired the shot that killed Schreck.

"I have no doubt about winning in November," he said. "I know the people know the deal I had and won't let me down."

Of 70 million licensed automobile drivers in the U. S., approximately 20 million received traffic violation tickets in 1955.

Judge Says Keep That Rooster Quiet

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An Oklahoma City family was ordered to find a way to keep their rooster from crowing or have a chicken dinner.

Municipal Judge Mike Foster directed the order to Mrs. Bessie Potter, 25, who was charged with violating the city anti-noise ordinance by permitting her young son's pet rooster to crow in the early morning hours.

Judge Foster, who was raised on an Arkansas farm, made a suggestion. He said if the perch was placed near the top of the coop the rooster couldn't raise its head high enough to crow.

Cincinnati Sheriff Chops Speed Limit

CINCINNATI (AP) — Sheriff Dan Tehan says Hamilton County police will file reckless driving charges against motorists who drive 60 m.p.h. through congested areas, although he doesn't know "whether it will hold up in court."

A new state law that went into effect Monday raises the daytime speed limit to 60 on state roads. The sheriff said that such speeds through some areas would constitute reckless driving.

Down Went Branch, Harold and All

NORWICH, N.Y. (AP)—Landscaper Harold Westcott, 30, finished a tree-trimming job ahead of schedule when he cut through a branch to which he had tied his safety rope.

Down went the branch, Harold and all.

He suffered cuts in the 25-foot fall.

Officials at a Norwich Hospital described the incident.

Yank Strategy Against Sal Maglie Flops

Bum Hurler Chuckles In Telling How Scout's Tip Backfires On Foe

BROOKLYN (AP) — A Yankee scouting report that backfired helped considerably in Sal Maglie's opening victory over the American League champions and Maglie alternately chuckled and grinned as he told about it.

Newsmen had pointed out to Brooklyn's Cinderella man that not a Yankee batter swung at his first pitch in the first three innings and 21 hitters in all had let the first offering go by. With only a couple of exceptions, the pitch was called strike and Maglie was quickly ahead of the batter.

"Let me tell you a secret," said Sal.

"A friend of mine, a ball player—and I'm not going to tell you who he is—told me that Jim Turner, the Yankee coach, scouted me in a recent game against Pittsburgh. He made a note that the Pirates had swung at my first pitch on 14 occasions without getting a hit."

"I figured," said Maglie as the grin widened, "they would be taking the first one and I decided to get it over the plate. I guess I figured right."

The Yanks, themselves, had nothing but praise for Maglie, who faced them only three and one-third innings in his interim stopover at Cleveland last year and until May of this season.

"That fellow was just the better pitcher, that's all," said manager Casey Stengel. "We had their man in a lot of trouble but left—how many? nine?—on base. There's your answer."

Back in the Dodgers' quarters, someone sought out Don Newcombe, the 27-game winner who drew today's starting assignment.

"See anything that'll help?"

"Naw," said Newk, "they look like the same old Yanks to me."

"Did Maglie show you anything about the hitters you didn't know?"

"We went over that in the clubhouse meeting," the big right-hander said almost belligerently. "Besides, me and Maglie pitch different."

They don't call Enos Slaughter the "Old Pro" for nothing. His three hits Wednesday boosted Slaughter's World Series batting average to .327 with 16 safeties in 49 trips. The 40-year-old Yankee outfielder played in 12 series games with the St. Louis Cards in 1942 and 1946.

Data about today's pitchers: Don Newcome of the Brooks gave up 33 home runs in 268 innings during the regular season. He walked 46, struck out 137 and completed 18 of his 36 starts.

The Yanks' Don Larsen yielded 20 homers in 180 frames, walked 96, fanned 103 and went the distance six times in 20 starting assignments.

By picking up three assists, Bill Skowron of the Yankees fell one short of the series record for first basemen. The one-game mark is four set by Marvin Owen of Detroit in the fifth game of the 1935 classic.

What's your inning in the office pool today? The third was high Wednesday. All-time series statistics, however, show that the fourth inning is the most productive with 280 runs followed by the first with 264 runs and the seventh with 263.

The victory upped the Dodgers' series record to 18-32 in games. The Yankees have won 74 games and lost only 40.

Playing the percentages doesn't always pay. Yankee manager Casey Stengel used four pinch-hitters, three lefty hitters and one righthanded-hitter against righty Sal Maglie. Bob Cerv, the righty, was the only one to produce. He singled in the sixth.

Ossie Solem is in his 11th season as coach of the Springfield, Mass., College football team.

Of 26 lettermen on Michigan State's 1956 football team only nine are seniors.

Each World Series Manager Gambled in Opening Game

BROOKLYN (AP)—Each World Series manager took a big gamble in the opening game. Walt Alston, of the Dodgers won, Casey Stengel of the Yankees lost.

Alston gambled on leaving Sal Maglie on the mound in the fifth when with two on and one out a home run by Yogi Berra would have tied the score at 6-6. Maglie went on to win.

Stengel gambled in starting Whitey Ford, a left-hander, in Ebbets Field, which with its short left field is considered bad for lefties.

Alston's gamble was made with the count 3 and 2. Berra lined an outside pitch to Sandy Amoros in left field and Moose Skowron belted another into the same hands. Very probably if Berra had let the ball go he would have walked and Maglie would have come out of the game.

Stengel didn't consider what he did a gamble.

"You can call it a gamble if you want to," he said afterwards. "I don't. Our Ford just wasn't pitching as well as he is capable of doing."

The way the game started it looked all Yankee. Enos Slaughter bounced a single off Hodges' glove, and Mickey Mantle lofted the ball over the right field fence for two runs. It was the only really authoritative homer of the day.

The Dodgers evened it up in the second. Robinson led off with his homer. Hodges singled to center and Carl Furillo brought him home with a double to the same place.

Then in the third game the big clincher. Pee Wee Reese singled to deep short, Duke Snider singled to center, and Hodges poked on of Ford's pitches into the lower left field stands.

Billy Martin homered, also to left field, in the top of the fourth for the third and last Yankee run. Roy Campanella led off the Dodger half of the fourth with a double that bounced around in the exit corner of center field. Sandy Amoros singled him home.

The game went scoreless from that point on but there were moments of drama, such as the fifth when Hank Bauer led off with a single to center, and, after Slaughter had flied to Robinson, Mantle drew a walk. That set the stage for Alston's big decision to leave Maglie in the game.

Tebbetts Picks Dodgers to Win

BROOKLYN (AP) — Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs who were in contention for the National League flag until the next to last day of the season, believes the Dodgers will win the World Series.

"I was a bit afraid before the first game," he explained, "but I think the Dodgers will win now."

Bobo Olson Quits Career in Ring

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Bobo Olson is hanging up his gloves.

Retirement of the former middleweight boxing champion was announced by his manager, Sid Flaherty, on the eve of his scheduled 10-round main event bout with Sammy Walker tonight.

"His reflexes are too slow and he hasn't felt like his old self," Flaherty said of the once tireless-punching, durable Olson, now 28.

The manager said he would try to establish Olson in business in their home city, San Francisco.

Assignments Stressed For Greenfield Game

There's been a tightening down on the Washington Lions as they move into their final practice Thursday for the opening SCO League game with the Greenfield gridders Friday night.

"Every boy who'll see action tomorrow will know his assignments backwards and forwards," said Head Coach Fred Domenico. "Anyone who doesn't know them hardly needs to dress for the game."

There'll be a half - hour skull session before the 8 p. m. practice under the lights tonight and the boys will be tested, on paper, in their knowledge of what they're supposed to be doing on every play, defensive and offensive.

"This may seem a little strict", said Domenico, "But the boys have been drilled on assignments every day this week."

He referred to the Monday and Tuesday drills with a skull session Monday night, and the scrimmage practice Tuesday in which the knowledge of assignments under real game conditions was emphasized.

* * *

NOTHING NEW has been added to the Lions' repertoire of plays since the beginning of the season, except some changes in a few blocking assignments.

Wednesday's practice was on both offensive and defensive assignments, with a little more time given to offense than defense.

Tonight's practice will be a brief run - through under the lights, once again with the emphasis on assignments.

There has been a bit of a shake-up in the starting lineup this week. New men at the end positions are Cary Self, replacing Arnold Ward at left end, and Ronnie Carter, replacing Eldon Brown at right end.

Both freshmen, the two boys will get a chance to show their stuff under fire against the Tigers from Greenfield. Domenico has worried about those end slots all week and he's hoping these boys will turn a trick or two out there Friday night.

* * *

"OF COURSE, Brown and Ward have been working hard to hold those spots, too," said the Coach. "They won't be out of the running entirely, and they'll definitely see action against Greenfield. I want to make some comparisons."

The backfield is the same as it's been all season: John Bainter at quarterback; Roger McLean at left end; Larry Evans at right half and Hank Anders at fullback.

Tackles are Jim Lucas and Ted Clarke and left guard is Jim Wilson; however, Jack Crabtree will alternate with Jack Anders at right guard and Ronnie Dowler will alternate with Dick Welch at offensive center.

"The boys realize the need for learning assignments and have been working hard this week," said Domenico. "I think we know them pretty well."

As a prelude to the big game Friday, The Junior High School gridders will go out against West Jefferson Junior High in a game scheduled for 4:30 p. m. Thursday at Gardener Park field.

Reserved seats for the game Friday may be purchased at Gillen's Drug Store. As of Wednesday there were about 200 tickets left for seats on both sides of the field.

Bucky Harris Signed by Bosox

BROOKLYN (AP)—Bucky Harris, a 59-year-old veteran of more than three decades in the major league, has been signed by the Boston Red Sox as a "special assistant" to General Manager Joe Cronin.

"Harris will be stationed in Boston and will be a general trouble shooter," Cronin said.

Harris, who resigned last week as manager of the Detroit Tigers, will serve as an aide to the man who replaced him as field manager of the Red Sox in 1934.

Stanford Set To Scalp OSU Gridders Again

COLUMBUS (AP)—Stanford's Indians fly into town tonight to try to give Ohio State's Buckeyes the same football scalping they administered on the home reservation last year.

The 37-man Indian squad will clash with the Bucks at Ohio Stadium Saturday. Their coach, Chuck Taylor, remembering the 6-0 drubbing his team gave Ohio State last year, was equally confident about the coming engagement.

Taylor answered, "definitely, yes," when asked if he expected to beat the Buckeyes.

A couple of feathers have been picked from Stanford's war bonnet, however. Wednesday, ace guard Noel Robinson was put out of action with a knee injury that failed to respond to treatment after he hurt it in the Michigan State game last Saturday. Another first stringer, center Bob Long, was ruled out of the Buckeye contest with an ailment doctors diagnosed as blood poisoning.

Ohio State worked over its pass defense Wednesday in an attempt to damper the throwing arm of Stanford quarterback John Brodie.

Buckeye Coach Woody Hayes said the workout, which he termed as one with "plenty of zip," was the last full scale session this week.

Pleased with his team's progress, Hayes commented: "I think we wil. have a good defense."

Tight Amateur Code Retained In Olympics

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — The controversial anti-professional pledge, which had threatened to split Olympic ranks, has been suspended for the Melbourne games.

The International Olympic Committee executive board Wednesday night decided after a three-hour session to return to the old Olympic vow which requires only that each athlete declare he is an amateur. The words "and to remain" an amateur were suppressed at least as far as the Melbourne games are concerned.

Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the IOC who had led the fight for the new rule, expressed satisfaction over the committee's action.

The board said its action in returning to the pledge used during the 1952 games at Helsinki was motivated by insufficient notice of the new pledge, which first appeared in the Olympic rules published in July.

letes to sign a pledge stating they letes to sign apledge stating they would remain amateurs, brought adverse reaction from Olympic team members of several countries.

At the same time, the AP also learned that Jack Tighe, coach of the Detroit Tigers, will be elevated to the manager's post, a job vacated by Bucky Harris.

Both announcements are expected to be made either during the World Series or soon after.

Indiana Entries Win at Lebanon

LEBANON (AP) — Indiana horses won feature events at Lebanon Raceway Wednesday night.

Peggy Barnes, owned and driven by Dorsey Spittler of Terre Haute, Ind., won the fifth race, a one-mile pace with $700 purse. The eight-year-old mare moved up from third near the finish to win.

Frank Grice of Union City, Ind., won the seventh race, another mile pace, with $600 purse, with his nine-year-old mare, Connie H.

Beecham Collects Boring Decision

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Jimmy Beecham, the 21-year-old welterweight from Philadelphia, made his television boxing debut Wednesday night but he was no hit with the fans as he outpointed the Trinidad veteran, Hector Constarce in a boring 10-round bout.

Most of the 2,116 who saw the fight in the Miami Beach Auditorium seemed to agree it was lousy, for they booed intermittently and there were some loud Bronx cheers at the end.

Bob Bronzan, who is putting in his seventh season as coach of the San Jose State football team, will resign at the end of the campaign.

Yank Strategy Against Sal Maglie Flops

Bum Hurler Chuckles In Telling How Scout's Tip Backfires On Foe

BROOKLYN (AP) — A Yankee scouting report that backfired helped considerably in Sal Maglie's opening victory over the American League champions and Maglie alternately chuckled and grinned as he told about it.

Newsmen had pointed out to Brooklyn's Cinderella man that not a Yankee batter swung at his first pitch in the first three innings and 21 hitters in all had let the first offering go by. With only a couple of exceptions, the pitch was called strike and Maglie was quickly ahead of the batter.

"Let me tell you a secret," said Sal.

"A friend of mine, a ball player —and I'm not going to tell you who he is—told me that Jim Turner, the Yankee coach, scouted me in a recent game against Pittsburgh. He made a note that the Pirates had swung at my first pitch on 14 occasions without getting a hit."

"I figured," said Maglie as the grin widened, "they would be taking the first one and I decided to get it over the plate. I guess I figured right."

The Yanks, themselves, had nothing but praise for Maglie, who faced them only three and one-third innings in his interim stopover at Cleveland last year and until May of this season.

"That fellow was just the better pitcher, that's all," said manager Casey Stengel. "We had their man in a lot of trouble but left—how many? nine?—on base. There's your answer."

Back in the Dodgers' quarters, someone sought out Don Newcombe, the 27-game winner who drew today's starting assignment.

"See anything that'll help?"

"Naw," said Newk, "they look like the same old Yanks to me."

"Did Maglie show you anything about the hitters you didn't know?"

"We went over that in the clubhouse meeting," the big right-hander said almost belligerently. "Besides, me and Maglie pitch different."

They don't call Enos Slaughter the "Old Pro" for nothing. His three hits Wednesday boosted Slaughter's World Series batting average to .327 with 16 safeties in 49 trips. The 40-year-old Yankee outfielder played in 12 series games with the St. Louis Cards in 1942 and 1946.

Data about today's pitchers: Don Newcome of the Brooks gave up 33 home runs in 268 innings during the regular season. He walked 46, struck out 137 and completed 18 of his 36 starts.

The Yanks' Don Larsen yielded 20 homers in 180 frames, walked 96, fanned 103 and went the distance six times in 20 starting assignments.

By picking up three assists, Bill Skowron of the Yankees fell one short of the series record for first basemen. The one-game mark is four set by Marvin Owen of Detroit in the fifth game of the 1935 classic.

What's your inning in the office pool today? The third was high Wednesday. All-time series statistics, however, show that the fourth inning is the most productive with 280 runs followed by the first with 264 runs and the seventh with 263.

The victory upped the Dodgers' series record to 18-32 in games. The Yankees have won 74 games and lost only 40.

Playing the percentages doesn't always pay. Yankee manager Casey Stengel used four pinch-hitters, three lefty hitters and one righthanded-hitter against righty Sal Maglie. Bob Cerv, the righty, was the only one to produce. He singled in the sixth.

Ossie Solem is in his 11th season as coach of the Springfield, Mass., College football team.

Of 26 lettermen on Michigan State's 1956 football team only nine are seniors.

Each World Series Manager Gambled in Opening Game

BROOKLYN (AP)—Each World Series manager took a big gamble in the opening game. Walt Alston, of the Dodgers won, Casey Stengel of the Yankees lost.

Alston gambled on leaving Sal Maglie on the mound in the fifth when with two on and one out a home run by Yogi Berra would have tied the score at 6-6. Maglie went on to win.

Stengel gambled in starting Whitey Ford, a left-hander, in Ebbets Field, which with its short left field is considered bad for lefties.

Alston's gamble was made with the count 3 and 2. Berra lined an outside pitch to Sandy Amoros in left field and Moose Skowron belted another into the same hands. Very probably if Berra had let the ball go he would have walked and Maglie would have come out of the game.

Stengel didn't consider what he did a gamble.

"You can call it a gamble if you want to," he said afterwards. "I don't. Our Ford just wasn't pitching as well as he is capable of doing."

The way the game started it looked all Yankee. Enos Slaughter bounced a single off Hodges' glove, and Mickey Mantle lofted the ball over the right field fence for two runs. It was the only really authoritative homer of the day.

The Dodgers evened it up in the second. Robinson led off with his homer. Hodges singled to center and Carl Furillo brought him home with a double to the same place.

Then in the third game the big clincher. Pee Wee Reese singled to deep short, Duke Snider singled to center, and Hodges poked on of Ford's pitches into the lower left field stands.

Billy Martin homered, also to left field, in the top of the fourth for the third and last Yankee run. Roy Campanella led off the Dodger half of the fourth with a double that bounced around in the exit corner of center field. Sandy Amoros singled him home.

The game went scoreless from that point on but there were moments of drama, such as the fifth when Hank Bauer led off with a single to center, and, after Slaughter had flied to Robinson, Mantle drew a walk. That set the stage for Alston's big decision to leave Maglie in the game.

Tebbetts Picks Dodgers to Win

BROOKLYN (AP) — Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs who were in contention for the National League flag until the next to last day of the season, believes the Dodgers will win the World Series.

"I was a bit afraid before the first game," he explained, "but I think the Dodgers will win now."

Bobo Olson Quits Career in Ring

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Bobo Olson is hanging up his gloves.

Retirement of the former middleweight boxing champion was announced by his manager, Sid Flaherty, on the eve of his scheduled 10-round main event bout with Sammy Walker tonight.

"His reflexes are too slow and he hasn't felt like his old self," Flaherty said of the once tireless-punching, durable Olson, now 28.

The manager said he would try to establish Olson in business in their home city, San Francisco.

Assignments Stressed For Greenfield Game

There's been a tightening down on the Washington Lions as they move into their final practice Thursday for the opening SCO League game with the Greenfield gridders Friday night.

"Every boy who'll see action tomorrow will know his assignments backwards and forwards," said Head Coach Fred Domenico. "Anyone who doesn't know them hardly needs to dress for the game."

There'll be a half - hour skull session before the 8 p. m. practice under the lights tonight and the boys will be tested, on paper, in their knowledge of what they're supposed to be doing on every play, defensive and offensive.

"This may seem a little strict", said Domenico, "But the boys have been drilled on assignments every day this week."

He referred to the Monday and Tuesday drills with a skull session Monday night, and the scrimmage practice Tuesday in which the knowledge of assignments under real game conditions was emphasized.

* * *

NOTHING NEW has been added to the Lions' repertoire of plays since the beginning of the season, except some changes in a few blocking assignments.

Wednesday's practice was on both offensive and defensive assignments, with a little more time given to offense than defense.

Tonight's practice will be a brief run - through under the lights, once again with the emphasis on assignments.

There has been a bit of a shake-up in the starting lineup this week. New men at the end positions are Cary Self, replacing Arnold Ward at left end, and Ronnie Carter, replacing Eldon Brown at right end.

Both freshmen, the two boys will get a chance to show their stuff under fire against the Tigers from Greenfield. Domenico has worried about those end slots all week and he's hoping these boys will turn a trick or two out there Friday night.

* * *

"OF COURSE, Brown and Ward have been working hard to hold those spots, too," said the Coach. "They won't be out of the running entirely, and they'll definitely see action against Greenfield. I want to make some comparisons."

The backfield is the same as it's been all season: John Bainter at quarterback; Roger McLean at left end; Larry Evans at right half and Hank Anders at fullback.

Tackles are Jim Lucas and Ted Clarke and left guard is Jim Wilson; however, Jack Crabtree will alternate with Jack Anders at right guard and Ronnie Dowler will alternate with Dick Welch at offensive center.

"The boys realize the need for learning assignments and have been working hard this week," said Domenico. "I think we know them pretty well."

As a prelude to the big game Friday, The Junior High School gridders will go out against West Jefferson Junior High in a game scheduled for 4:30 p. m. Thursday at Gardener Park field.

Reserved seats for the game Friday may be purchased at Gillen's Drug Store. As of Wednesday there were about 200 tickets left for seats on both sides of the field.

Bucky Harris Signed by Bosox

BROOKLYN (AP)—Bucky Harris, a 59-year-old veteran of more than three decades in the major league, has been signed by the Boston Red Sox as a "special assistant" to General Manager Joe Cronin.

"Harris will be stationed in Boston and will be a general trouble shooter," Cronin said.

Harris, who resigned last week as manager of the Detroit Tigers, will serve as an aide to the man who replaced him as field manager of the Red Sox in 1934.

Stanford Set To Scalp OSU Gridders Again

COLUMBUS (AP)—Stanford's Indians fly into town tonight to try to give Ohio State's Buckeyes the same football scalping they administered on the home reservation last year.

The 37-man Indian squad will clash with the Bucks at Ohio Stadium Saturday. Their coach, Chuck Taylor, remembering the 6-0 drubbing his team gave Ohio State last year, was equally confident about the coming engagement.

Taylor answered, "definitely, yes," when asked if he expected to beat the Buckeyes.

A couple of feathers have been picked from Stanford's war bonnet, however. Wednesday, ace guard Noel Robinson was put out of action with a knee injury that failed to respond to treatment after he hurt it in the Michigan State game last Saturday. Another first stringer, center Bob Long, was ruled out of the Buckeye contest with an ailment doctors diagnosed as blood poisoning.

Ohio State worked over its pass defense Wednesday in an attempt to damper the throwing arm of Stanford quarterback John Brodie.

Buckeye Coach Woody Hayes said the workout, which he termed as one with "plenty of zip," was the last full scale session this week.

Pleased with his team's progress, Hayes commented: "I think we wil. have a good defense."

Tight Amateur Code Retained In Olympics

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — The controversial anti-professional pledge, which had threatened to split Olympic ranks, has been suspended for the Melbourne games.

The International Olympic Committee executive board Wednesday night decided after a three-hour session to return to the old Olympic vow which requires only that each athlete declare he is an amateur. The words "and to remain" an amateur were suppressed at least as far as the Melbourne games are concerned.

Avery Brundage of Chicago, president of the IOC who had led the fight for the new rule, expressed satisfaction over the committee's action.

The board said its action in returning to the pledge used during the 1952 games at Helsinki was motivated by insufficient notice of the new pledge, which first appeared in the Olympic rules published in July.

letes to sign a pledge stating they letes to sign apledge stating they would remain amateurs, brought adverse reaction from Olympic team members of several countries.

Farrell Tipped New Tribe Pilot

NEW YORK (AP)—Kerby Farrell, who led the Indianapolis Indians to an American Assn. pennant and Little World Series victory this season, will succeed Al Lopez as manager of the Cleveland Indians, the Associated Press learns.

At the same time, the AP also learned that Jack Tighe, coach of the Detroit Tigers, will be elevated to the manager's post, a job vacated by Bucky Harris.

Both announcements are expected to be made either during the World Series or soon after.

Indiana Entries Win at Lebanon

LEBANON (AP) — Indiana horses won feature events at Lebanon Raceway Wednesday night.

Peggy Barnes, owned and driven by Dorsey Spittler of Terre Haute, Ind., won the fifth race, a one-mile pace with $700 purse. The eight-year-old mare moved up from third near the finish to win.

Frank Grice of Union City, Ind., won the seventh race, another mile pace, with $600 purse, with his nine-year-old mare, Connie H.

Beecham Collects Boring Decision

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Jimmy Beecham, the 21-year-old welterweight from Philadelphia, made his television boxing debut Wednesday night but he was no hit with the fans as he outpointed the Trinidad veteran, Hector Constarce in a boring 10-round bout.

Most of the 2,116 who saw the fight in the Miami Beach Auditorium seemed to agree it was lousy, for they booed intermittently and there were some loud Bronx cheers at the end.

Bob Bronzan, who is putting in his seventh season as coach of the San Jose State football team, will resign at the end of the campaign.

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Curly Morrison To Be Speaker At Grid Banquet

Browns Star Booked For Annual Booster Dinner Here Nov. 19

Curly Morrison, high - scoring and hard - hitting halfback for the Cleveland Browns, is to be this year's speaker at the annual football banquet for the Lion grid squad of Washington C. H. High School.

Announcement of plans for the banquet, virtually completed far earlier this year than in the past, was made at Wednesday night's meeting of the Boosters Club, the sponsor of the event.

The Boosters had settled on Morrison as the No. 1 choice for the speaker at their last meeting and delegated the Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly, who is a close personal friend of many of the Browns players, to extend the invitation to him.

Fr. Connelly reported to the Boosters at their meeting Wednesday night that Morrison had accepted and explained that, since the Browns are playing the Eagles in Philadelphia on Nov. 18, Morrison would have to fly back to Ohio and come here the next day for the banquet.

Against this background, the Boosters set the date for the banquet here on Nov. 19. It is to be in the American Legion Hall.

* * *

MORRISON has been a gridiron hero to high school football players all over Ohio ever since he was an outstanding fullback for Ohio State University's Bucks. After his college days, he continued to hold the sportlight through his exploits in professional football. During the past summer, he became even better known through his appearances on television.

After the football squad, the managers and coaches are taken care of, it was estimated that there will be around 175 seats at the banquet tables for the Boosters and general public.

* * *

WITH THE PLANS for the banquet in shape, the meeting turned to more immediate interests — Head Coach Fred Domenico's chalk talk on the prospects for a Lion victory in its first SCO League game of the season here Friday night with Greenfield's Tigers.

Domenico shied away from anything that resembled a prediction on the outcome of this game, but he did outline some of the formations the Tigers are expected to use against the Lions. He used a blackboard to diagram some of the plays WHS scouts had brought back from previous Tiger contests. However, he did not disclose any of the strategy or the formations, the Lions may use.

Motion pictures of last Friday night's game, when St. Charles snowed the Lions under with a 54 to 0 shutout, were shown. Domenico carried on a running commentary on the movies, pointing out Lion mistakes — and good plays, too — and giving some pointers on how they hope to overcome their errors.

Coach Clyde Crame: announced that the WHS Junior team, the Lion Cubs, will play the Juniors from West Jefferson at Gardner Park here Thursday afternoon and urged the Boosters to go to the field and lend their moral support to the boys who in a few years will be wearing the blue and white of the WHS Varsity.

Snakes Have Their Place-- But Not in Downtown WCH!

AND HE'S ALIVE!—Fire Chief George Hall displays the large snake captured on North St. near Court St.

When a snake 5 feet, 8 inches long starts crawling across North St., within 100 feet of Court St., — and at midnight— that is news.

A. E. Weatherly and two policemen were the first to see the big reptile.

Fire Chief George Hall came along immediately afterward, and understanding the ins and outs of herpetology, he picked it up, placed it in a box and removed it to the City Building.

One alleged identified the snake as a "Pine or thunder" snake, but there are no such snakes in Ohio, according to Edward S. Thomas head of the Natural History Department of the Ohio State Museum.

* * *

OTHERS here identified it as a pilot blacksnake, sometimes called a timber snake, and Mrs. Donald Murdock, who is well versed in natural history, expressed the belief that it was a king snake.

Given a description of the snake, by telephone, Thomas said there is little doubt that the snake is a pilot blacksnake.

Hall expects to turn the snake over to Mrs. Murdock for further study and display.

Where the snake came from is a mystery, but it is possible it might have been concealed about a service station, or some other point nearby, and was moving to more desirable quarters for the winter when it was captured.

Girl's Bike Stolen

Police today were looking for a "Special Cruiser" girl's blue bicycle trimmed with white. Mrs. Norma Frederick, 1023 Washington Ave., reported the bicycle belonging to her son, Billie, was stolen from the yard at their home sometime Wednesday night.

Band 'Tour' Planned at Friday Game

The Washington High School Marching Band will lead the crowd at Friday's game with Greenfield on a trip around the United States during the half-time show at Gardner Park Field.

A "four - cylinder bucket of bolts" will be the vehicle for the program entitled "Touring the U. S. A." as the band plays tunes and shifts into formations to suggest the ride of Mr. Average Motorist in his tourist garb as he gawks at the passing scenery.

A car, revived from the scrap heap, will be driven out on the field as the band plays the theme, "Touring the U. S. A.", then forms a camera as the scene shifts to Hollywood. The driver gets his picture taken there.

From the West the car travels suddenly to the Old South. The band forms a Georgia bell and plays "Old Folks at Home." Chimes sound as the motorist meets a Southern belle.

Then the band moves on to New York City where the tourist will ogle the Rockettes, played by the tuba chorus line to the tune of "Oh You Beautiful Doll."

* * *

FINALLY BACK in Washington C. H. Mr. Average Motorist is so broke he can't do anything but ride his rowboat in Paint Creek while the band plays "Row, Row, Row Your Boat".

The band will then pick up the tempo quickly with "Go Washington".

Saturday the band will take a trip to Columbus and the Capital University - Hiram College game that afternoon. They will join three other high school bands from Lancaster, Gahanna, and Columbus South and the Capital U. Band on the field for a gala half - time show.

The four school bands will be there for an all - day music clinic with Marise Stith of Syracuse University and Wilbur Crist of the Capital Conservatory.

The Boosters had settled on Morrison as the No. 1 choice for the speaker at their last meeting and delegated the Rev. Father Richard J. Connelly, who is a close personal friend of many of the Browns players, to extend the invitation to him.

Fr. Connelly reported to the Boosters at their meeting Wednesday night that Morrison had accepted and explained that, since the Browns are playing the Eagles in Philadelphia on Nov. 18, Morrison would have to fly back to Ohio and come here the next day for the banquet.

Against this background, the Boosters set the date for the banquet here on Nov. 19. It is to be in the American Legion Hall.

* * *

MORRISON has been a gridiron hero to high school football players all over Ohio ever since he was an outstanding fullback for Ohio State University's Bucks. After his college days, he continued to hold the sportlight through his exploits in professional football. During the past summer, he became even better known through his appearances on television.

After the football squad, the managers and coaches are taken care of, it was estimated that there will be around 175 seats at the banquet tables for the Boosters and general public.

* * *

WITH THE PLANS for the banquet in shape, the meeting turned to more immediate interests — Head Coach Fred Domenico's chalk talk on the prospects for a Lion victory in its first SCO League game of the season here Friday night with Greenfield's Tigers.

Domenico shied away from anything that resembled a prediction on the outcome of this game, but he did outline some of the formations the Tigers are expected to use against the Lions. He used a blackboard to diagram some of the plays WHS scouts had brought back from previous Tiger contests. However, he did not disclose any of the strategy or the formations, the Lions may use.

Motion pictures of last Friday night's game, when St. Charles snowed the Lions under with a 54 to 0 shutout, were shown. Domenico carried on a running commentary on the movies, pointing out Lion mistakes — and good plays, too — and giving some pointers on how they hope to overcome their errors.

Coach Clyde Cramer announced that the WHS Junior team, the Lion Cubs, will play the Juniors from West Jefferson at Gardner Park here Thursday afternoon and urged the Boosters to go to the field and lend their moral support to the boys who in a few years will be wearing the blue and white of the WHS Varsity.

Snakes Have Their Place-- But Not in Downtown WCH!

AND HE'S ALIVE!—Fire Chief George Hall displays the large snake captured on North St. near Court St.

When a snake 5 feet, 8 inches long starts crawling across North St., within 100 feet of Court St., — and at midnight— that is news.

A. E. Weatherly and two policemen were the first to see the big reptile.

Fire Chief George Hall came along immediately afterward, and understanding the ins and outs of herpetology, he picked it up, placed it in a box and removed it to the City Building.

One alleged identified the snake as a "Pine or thunder" snake, but there are no such snakes in Ohio, according to Edward S. Thomas head of the Natural History Department of the Ohio State Museum.

* * *

OTHERS here identified it as a pilot blacksnake, sometimes called a timber snake, and Mrs. Donald Murdock, who is well versed in natural history, expressed the belief that it was a king snake.

Given a description of the snake, by telephone, Thomas said there is little doubt that the snake is a pilot blacksnake.

Hall expects to turn the snake over to Mrs. Murdock for further study and display.

Where the snake came from is a mystery, but it is possible it might have been concealed about a service station, or some other point nearby, and was moving to more desirable quarters for the winter when it was captured.

Girl's Bike Stolen

Police today were looking for a "Special Cruiser" girl's blue bicycle trimmed with white. Mrs. Norma Frederick, 1023 Washington Ave., reported the bicycle belonging to her son, Billie, was stolen from the yard at their home sometime Wednesday night.

Band 'Tour' Planned at Friday Game

The Washington High School Marching Band will lead the crowd at Friday's game with Greenfield on a trip around the United States during the half-time show at Gardner Park Field.

A "four - cylinder bucket of bolts" will be the vehicle for the program entitled "Touring the U. S. A." as the band plays tunes and shifts into formations to suggest the ride of Mr. Average Motorist in his tourist garb as he gawks at the passing scenery.

A car, revived from the scrap heap, will be driven out on the field as the band plays the theme, "Touring the U. S. A.", then forms a camera as the scene shifts to Hollywood. The driver gets his picture taken there.

From the West the car travels suddenly to the Old South. The band forms a Georgia bell and plays "Old Folks at Home." Chimes sound as the motorist meets a Southern belle.

Then the band moves on to New York City where the tourist will ogle the Rockettes, played by the tuba chorus line to the tune of "Oh You Beautiful Doll."

* * *

FINALLY BACK in Washington C. H. Mr. Average Motorist is so broke he can't do anything but ride his rowboat in Paint Creek while the band plays "Row, Row, Row Your Boat".

The band will then pick up the tempo quickly with "Go Washington".

Saturday the band will take a trip to Columbus and the Capital University - Hiram College game that afternoon. They will join three other high school bands from Lancaster, Gahanna, and Columbus South and the Capital U. Band on the field for a gala half - time show.

The four school bands will be there for an all - day music clinic with Marise Stith of Syracuse University and Wilbur Crist of the Capital Conservatory.
